Cars of Joseph E. Mullen, 50, Emmitsburg, and Elton M. Pepple, 38, Cleveland, O., collided at 5:16 o'clock Tuesday evening about five miles west of here on the Fairfield Rd.

Police said Pepple traveling west, slowed to pull off the highway and Mullen's vehicle, following the Pepple car, ran into its rear. Damage totaled $85, no one was hurt. Police are continuing their investigation.

Police said Mrs. Krepps has pulled in to Route 94 from a side road and was proceeding south on the York Springs-Cross Keys Rd., when Noble, also headed south on that highway, struck the rear of the Krepps car. Investigation is being continued. Damage totaled $125.

A Holstein cow being led by Dell Pearson, aged about 70, Aspers R. 1, broke away from Mr. Pearson and ran onto the Heidlersburg-Biglerville Rd. about three miles east of Biglerville at 6:30 o'clock this morning. ## BROTHER MAY BE RELEASED AS KOREAN POW

The brother of Assistant Adams County Farm Agent Fred H. Attinger may be among the 3,313 Americans captives of Communist troops in Korea, it was learned today.

The name of the brother, Douglas Earl Attinger, was read among a group of prisoners-to-be-released listed by a Sunbury radio station. A call there by Attinger revealed that the station was reading the names from what it claims is a list of some 300 prisoners to be returned sent out by United Nations headquarters.

An airman first class, Douglas Earl Attinger was listed as missing in action June 12, 1952, while on a bombing mission over Korea as a waist gunner in a B-29 flying from Okinawa.

Airman Attinger was 18 when he was inducted into the service January 4, 1951. He was assigned to the Air Force and had his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. He was then sent to gunnery school in Oklahoma, qualified as a waist gunner and had his only furlough home in January, 1952. He then went to Forbes Air Force base and was shipped to Okinawa in February, 1952.

Since the airman was reported missing, the Attinger family has had no further word from any source.

BRING REMAINS OF THREE SLAIN HUNTERS TO U.S.

GASPE, Que. (AP)—Relatives plan today to bring the remains of three mysteriously slain bear hunters home to Pennsylvania for burial.

Clarence Claar, father of one of the dead men, will drive from Gaspe to Hollidaysburg, Pa., carrying the bones of the dead hunters in a welded box strapped to the top of his car.

Motoring with him will be his wife and daughter and Clyde Sell, brother-in-law of Eugene Lindsey, another of the dead hunters. They had identified the remains at an inquest Monday.

The relatives will leave behind them the hunters' belongings—a truck, guns, hunting equipment and a few ragged pieces of clothing. All have been impounded by Quebec provincial police investigating the deaths.

A coroner's jury ruled that two of the men 17-year-old Richard Lindsey of Hollidaysburg, Pa., and 20-year-old Fred Claar of East Freedom, Pa., were "murdered by gunshot wounds at the hands of a person or persons unknown."

The jury found that the leader of the party, Richard Lindsey's 45-year old father, Eugene H. Lindsey, died of "unknown causes."

Yesterday, Capt. J. A. Matte, head of the provincial police team who led the search for the hunters, announced that searchers had found a brown wallet, identified by papers in it as belonging to Eugene Lindsey.

Capt. Matte said there was no money in the wallet, although Lindsey was reported to have been carrying some $700 when he went into the bush.

He said the wallet was found, ripped open along the fold, lying on the banks of a small stream not far from where Lindsey's body was discovered two weeks ago.

It contained personal papers including a driver's license, a hunter's permit and a forest travel permit.

Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church, in his church bulletin this week notes that the problem of the parish sitting in the back of the church isn't a new one.

According to the bulletin, "As proof that the practice of crowding the rear seats in our churches is not a recent development, we quote from the Apostolic Constitutions dating from 380 A.D. in Syria: 'Let the deacons have charge of the seats in the church so that all who come in may take their own place, and not stay back near the door.'"

Allies And Reds Destroying Front Line Fortifications

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
SEOUL (AP)—The withdrawal of two mighty armies from the Korean demilitarized zone continued smoothly today as the Thursday night deadline approached.

Enemies a few days ago, Allied and Communist troops worked within shouting distance of each other, salvaging material and wrecking fortifications that took months, sometimes years, to build.

Although Allied troops were warned by the 8th Army against fraternization with the Reds, there were reports of friendly contacts all along the war-shattered front.

The Reds accused the Allies of eight violations of the demilitarized zone at Wednesday's session of the Korean Armistice Commission.

Under terms of the armistice signed Monday, both sides are to have pulled back 1 1/4 miles each from the truce line by 10 p.m. Thursday (8 a. m. EST)—three days after the cease-fire.

"It took us two years to build this line," one American officer remarked, "now we've got to tear down in 72 hours millions of dollars

DAVID STANTON EXPIRES AT 62

David E. Stanton, 62, died at his home, 143 W. Breckenridge St., this morning at 4 o'clock after having been in ill health for several years.

Mr. Stanton was a barber by trade and worked here at that occupation for about 40 years. He formerly was a porter at the Hotel Gettysburg for a number of years and was a clerk in the Revenue Dept. at Harrisburg for 13 years, giving up that work about six weeks ago due to ill health.

200 Descendants At Kimple Reunion

About 200 descendants of Henry and Mary Kimple met for the annual family reunion at the home of Albert Kimple, R. 2, Sunday. Those in attendance were from York, Hanover, Fairfield, Gettysburg, Rocky Ridge, Fayetteville and Buchanan Valley.

Lunch was served and games played. The following officers were elected: President, Albert Kimple; secretary, Sara Strausbaugh; treasurer, Regina Asper; amusement chairman, Elsie Kimple; members of the refreshment committee, Charles Cremer and Joseph McKenrick.

The Reds had dug a system of defenses mostly underground. Allied officers explained the Communists only have to cave in the dirt at the entrances to make them useless.

Communist and Allied war parties searched the buffer strip for bodies and graves. Before the search is ended, it was certain that some names on the list of missing would be removed.

Although American GI's and other United Nations forces were under orders to avoid the Reds, there were reports of contacts and in some cases exchange of foods, cigarettes and souvenirs.

STOREKEEPERS GO OVER PLANS FOR SALES DAYS

Final plans for the Gettysburg Sales Days Friday and Saturday were completed Tuesday evening at a meeting of the local Retail Merchants Association held at the Court House.

Since more than 40 merchants are participating, most of the members present at Tuesday's session were confident that the Sales Days will be the "most successful ever held in the borough."

There was some discussion concerning the possibility of closing all-day Thursday to prepare the stores for the Friday and Saturday sales.

Opinions Differ

Irving Bierer reported that the Bierer Store and Thompson's plan to close all day. Other storekeepers held that sufficient notice could not be given the public that the stores would be closed Thursday morning as well as afternoon.

One storekeeper said she and her clerks would be in the store changing prices and arranging the displays for the sales days. "In winter time you can close the doors and keep closed," she said, "but we can't close the doors now because it's too hot and what if customers come in while we're working there?"

The others agreed that the summer weather does make it difficult and added their thought if a customer came to the store he should not be turned away.

Discuss Timing Of Sale

The group finally agreed that each store should do as it sees fit concerning closing all day Thursday. If the time is needed to prepare displays and the opportunity presents itself, they may close. If not, they should remain open.

Radford Lippy led a discussion on the timing of the Gettysburg Sales Days, holding that he felt July is "a little early" for a sales day event. The other merchants however seemed generally agreed that the end of July date for the summer Gettysburg Sales Days is "just about right," as one put it.

Rolls of ticket are available from Retail Merchants Association Secretary Frank Hower, President Harold Reuning announced. The (Continued on Page 2)

Reds Refuse To Advance Time For Exchange Of Prisoners

MUNSAN (AP)—The Communists today charged the Allies with eight violations of the two-day-old Korean armistice — allegations promptly labeled by the Allies as minor and lacking information.

The Reds made the charges at today's second meeting of the joint Korean Armistice Commission. They asserted three aircraft flew over the demilitarized buffer zone, and that four artillery rounds and one burst of three machine-gun bullets were fired after the cease-fire became effective.

U. S. Maj. Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, chief Allied commissioner, disclosed after today's 1 hour, 22 minute meeting that the charges were lodged by his Communist counterpart, North Korean Lt. Gen. Lee Sang Cho. The commission recessed until 11 a. m. Thursday.

No Substantiation
"We were accused this morning," Bryan said, "These were allegations, broad and general, and nothing serious. None have been substantiated."

He added that he had "asked for additional information on which to base further action."

Bryan disclosed also that he had asked that the huge exchange of war prisoners begin Sunday, rather than on Aug. 5 as agreed upon yesterday, but that the Reds could not advance the date.

"I am sorely disappointed," he said.

More than 86,000 prisoners—including 3,313 Americans—are to be exchanged through Panmunjom within 60 days. About 22,000 North Koreans and Chinese refusing to return to Red rule will be brought to camps within the buffer zone and their fate decided later.

Truce Observers Ready

Bryan said the joint truce observer teams which will police the 2 1/2-mile-wide buffer zone across Korea's scarred waist "probably will start work tomorrow morning."

Bryan said that the neutral nation inspection team was expected to begin work shortly but that no information had as yet been received on the arrival of the Polish and Czech members at Panmunjom.

The design was originally issued in 1930 but has not appeared on Norwegian stamps since that time. Each stamp shows the famed "Nordkapp" or North Cape. The 20 ore plus 10 is green. The 30 ore plus 15 is red. The 55 ore plus 25 is blue. The additional values are for Norwegian charities.

Details and further information as to the designs will be available shortly.

Handy Helicopter Opens Bush Areas

EDMONTON, Alta. (U.P.)—The helicopter, with its ability to hang motionless in mid-air or land in a tiny space, is proving a valuable addition to northern bush

Manager Thomas P. Fox of Associated Airways Ltd., which has three 'copters based here, says development of their use in the northland has barely started. There now are five commercial helicopters in Alberta on geological, topographical or timber surveying.

Fox says the helicopter will not replace conventional aircraft in the near future, but will make unnecessary many trips by canoe or on foot. With helicopters, geologists can reach areas previously inaccessible. Fox recalls one engineer who accomplished more with a helicopter and crew in six weeks last year than three crews could have done in three years by ordinary methods.

WOMAN, CHILD ARE KILLED IN 3-CAR COLLISION

PORT JERVIS, N. Y. (AP)—An elderly woman and a small child were killed near here yesterday in a three-car collision. Six other persons were injured.

The dead were identified as Mrs. Nora Williams, 70, and Nora Lee Pehnick, 7, both of Scranton, Pa. The injured were Mrs. Leo Kaplan, 41, of Shenorock, N. Y.; John Moriarity, 9, of Shenorock; Linda Pehnick, 4, of Scranton; Mrs. Catherine Powers, 70, of Port Jervis; Ronald Houston, 23, of Port Jervis; and Justin Burdo, 24, of Dingman's Ferry, Pa.

State police at nearby Milford, Pa., said Houston and Burdo were riding in one automobile and tried to pass a car driven by Mrs. Powers. The young men's vehicle then crashed head-on into the third car, driven by Mrs. Kaplan with Mrs. Williams and the three children as passengers.

Arrest Previously
Houston was identified as the youth who, with a brother, Leroy, 19, was fined for drunken driving in Miami Shores, Fla., Municipal Court Oct. 13, 1952. Each was fined $75 on pleas of guilty.

Miami Shores police arrested Leroy in a new automobile early the previous day. Less than an hour later Ronald was nabbed on a motorcycle.

The brothers were quoted by police as saying they received $5,000 in settlement of a claim of Ronald against the Erie Railroad. The two, who were down to $1,000 when arrested, said they bought the car and motorcycle and went night clubbing.

BREWERS END 76-DAY STRIKE

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Milwaukee's 76-day-old brewery strike ended last night with the announcement that strikers had voted more than 3-1 to accept a contract offer from the city's six breweries.

The strikers, members of the CIO United Brewery Workers, began returning to work immediately. However, some protests against the agreement were voiced by dissenting workers who had hoped to win a 35-hour work week with no loss in pay.

Spokesmen for some breweries said the settlement terms, which included a 20-cent hourly wage increase, would result in a beer price increase.

John Schmitt, secretary of the union local, announced the vote was 4,710 to 1,537 in favor of the settlement. Less than an hour later, union workers were back on the job at the Pabst, Schlitz and Blatz breweries.

Production was to resume today at Miller and Independent, with Gettelman production starting tomorrow.

Totem Pole Presents "Bell, Book, Candle"

Rex Harrison's and Lilli Palmer's recent Broadway hit, "Bell, Book and Candle," is the stage attraction at the Totem Pole Playhouse in Caledonia State Park. It will play through Saturday.

Written by John Van Druten, the play was first intended to be a serious work, but upon seeing it produced, the author spotted in it a note of high comedy, and he re-wrote the story, turning it into a fantasy concerning the wives of witches and women.

Playing the leading role of Gillian Holroyd, the witch about whom the story revolves, is Jane Nervell, a newcomer at Totem Pole Playhouse.

380 DEMOCRATIC UNITS TO RAISE ANNUAL FUND

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell met with local party leaders here yesterday and won their endorsement of the Democrats' new fund-raising plan.

It calls for organization of a national advisory council of about 380 members, each representing a section of the nation. The fund-raising body would supplement traditional Jefferson-Jackson Day dinners as a means of balancing the party's budget.

Mitchell, who huddled with Mayor Joseph S. Clark before lunching with Democratic city and state party leaders, said he isn't worried about a $260,000 deficit the national committee has shouldered since the presidential campaign.

Seek Million A Year
Each of the 380 theoretical units of the United States is expected to raise about $2,500 annually for the party, which would provide an annual income of nearly one million dollars a year for operating expenses.

Several party figures attending the luncheon accepted chairmanships of units—in effect pledging themselves to raise at least $2,500 each.

Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh, State Democratic Chairman Maurice Spahn and former U. S. District Judge Guy K. Bard were among those present. Philadelphia's Dist. Atty. Richardson Dilworth and City Council President James A. Finnegan also were on hand.

Big Money Bill To Get Quick Approval

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional leaders driving for adjournment this weekend ticketed for quick approval in the House and Senate today the biggest money bill of the session, a defense budget of $34,371,541,000.

The figure was a compromise reached yesterday by a Senate-House conference committee which ironed out some 50 differences in versions of the bill passed earlier by the two branches.

The group accomplished the rare congressional feat of agreeing to a total that was about 62½ million dollars below that originally voted by the House and nearly 140 million less than voted by the Senate. The usual practice is to arrive at a figure between the two.

TUNNEY DROPS NEW ZEALANDER
NEW YORK, July 27.—Blinded and staggering his face a bloody mess, Tom Heene, the hard rock from down under, collapsed and fell from a technical knockout in the eleventh round to his world's heavyweight championship battle with Gene Tunney last night.
Tunney, born and bred in New York, and defending his title at home for the first time, cut the steady, courageous New Zealander to pieces, subjecting him to one of the worst beatings a challenger ever received.
Upwards of 30,000 spectators saw Heene wade in to unbroken slaughter through round after round.
The Associated Press scorecard showed Tunney winning at least nine of the eleven rounds, with Heene winning the first and dividing honors with the titleholder in the second.
If the estimated gate receipts are correct, promoter Tex Rickard and his 300 millionaires suffered a loss in the neighborhood of $500,000. Tunney was guaranteed $250,000 with $100,000 going to Heene.

Just Folks
By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE LONESOME SEASON
This is the lonely time of year when by myself I have to stay. Once more vacation time is here. At camps the elder children play. Self-pitying at home I sit. And that I shouldn't do, I know. But here's the dismal truth of it: Now grandpa has nowhere to go. And no one now with whom to play.
They left, their faces wreathed with grins. But I had something in my eye. "We'll be away 'til school begins." They shouted as they said goodbye. But oh, that glorious "Hello!" "When school begins" seems far away.
For Grandpa has nowhere to go. And no one now with whom to play.
It isn't fun to stay alone. With only books upon a shelf. And though it's wrong, I have to own. I'm feeling sorry for myself. "When school begins!" Oh haste the day.
When peace of mind again I'll know. When they'll be back with me to play. And I'll have somewhere to go. Copyright, 1953 by Edgar A. Guest

Today's Talk
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

TALK IS SO FLUID
Talk is so fluid, but it is much more. It is full of personality, poetry, drama, and character. Words become beautiful and often stirring and inspiring, but it is because we are reminded of something in our own experience. We think and act out something of the person, but in talk all of the person is there. Thought is sculptured right before us in a manner that cold type could never match.
How few great writers are good talkers, and what a multitude of good talkers never become great writers. The ideal companion is the one who can talk entertainingly and instructively and at the same time can put much of all that he is, into words that live and become doubly endeared.
Talk often flows as the river, singing a song on the way, but great writing has often been a thing of anguish and struggle to so form the thoughts as to make the words full of meaning, as well as ripe in construction. Lafcadio Hearn is one of the world's finest stylists in literature, yet he has confessed he spent days in the perfection of a single line that gave him satisfaction. And as a talker it took a rare mind to unlock the way into his mind so that the spoken words would be released.
How often we are disappointed in the talk of an author whose books have called forth our admiration. An Irishman once stated that John B. Gough, the noted temperance lecturer of long ago, "talked mid his coat-tails!" He drew great crowds of listeners because he was a great orator and made his talk fluid—with color, illustration, and depth of heart feeling.
The actual voice is full of color and its music lingers, like the remembered strains of a violin. To this day, though my Mother has been gone from me for over forty years, I can still recall her melodious voice and the words that she spoke in such beautiful fashion. Words are not enough. They must have body—flesh and blood!
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Educated Heart" of the Great United Brethren Church, Carlisle, by the Rev. D. S. Ernest, Saturday.

THE ALMANAC

Mrs. Carrans has been a teacher in the public schools of Adams County for the last fourteen years. Mr. Carrans is the lumber business of Virginia Mills.
Sells Double House: R. M. H. Carrans of West Water Street, has sold a double brick house to Charles A. McGowan, of South "Washington" Street. Mr. Carrans takes the house at once. The transfer was made through William E. Gough.

Crowds Flock to Stores for Bargains: With crowds of shoppers thronging the business blocks participating in the event and taking advantage of the bargains offered by the stores and the attractive prices of the merchandise, the Gettysburg Fair, which opened Saturday, drew a large crowd of shoppers to the fair grounds.

EAST GERMANS GETTING FOOD FACING ARREST AS ALLIED SPIES

By DAN DE LUCE
BERLIN, Pa.—The Communists implied today that East Germans getting free food from the West face arrest as spies, but West German radio said the Soviet zone continued to swarm into West Berlin for the handouts.
The Soviet zone radio began broadcasting hourly names and addresses of East German food recipients. It charged they were being recruited as future agents by Western espionage experts.
The intent of the radio name-calling was clear—to warn East Germans they risk arrest as Western agents if they persist in coming to the West for aid.
Long Line Form
But the trek of the hungry continued on a massive scale. Long lines again formed at the 40 West Berlin food distribution points before dawn in preparation for the 8 a. m. opening.
"It is a revolt against communism as big and as startling as the June 17 riots," one West Berlin official commented.
Western police said a Communist attempt to incite West Berlin jobless to riot against the giveaway food program for Easterners was doomed to failure.
Scatter Leaflets
Some Red agents scattered leaflets late yesterday in front of West Berlin labor offices with phony instructions for the West Berlin unemployed to show up for free food today at points which have been supplying the Easterners.
The leaflets copied the format of midget throwaway editions of the Telegraf, West Berlin Socialist newspaper.
Police said the relief program was so well known in West Berlin that few, if any, of the unemployed could be tricked into vainly going to the food distribution points.
Sinister Developments
The Soviet radio's roll call of alleged potential spies among the tidal wave of hungry East Germans was the most sinister development in the Communist attempt to tempt, fumble so far, to dynamite the huge relief program.
The radio read out somberly the names of men and women it claimed had been supplied to the "agents and terror center"—the Fighting Group Against Inhumanity—by West Berlin officials.

Grandmother Beat Child; Gets 18 Mos.

CUMBERLAND, Md. (AP)—Mrs. Madeline Hammes of nearby Wiley Ford, W. Va., was sentenced to 18 months in the Maryland Reformatory yesterday for "beating, kicking and twisting around" her toddling grandson on a Cumberland street.

TAFT FAMILY GATHERS AS HE WEAKENS

NEW YORK, Pa.—The family of Sen. Robert A. Taft was gathered here today after his condition suddenly took a turn for the worse.
A New York Hospital bulletin last night reported the Senate majority leader was "generally weaker" and that his condition was "unsatisfactory." A later announcement said he was "resting a little more comfortably." He was reported not to be suffering any pain.
Yesterday was the first day of serious reports on the 63-year-old Ohio Republican, who has been at the hospital for several weeks for treatment of a "hip lesion."
Wife Visits Him
His wife Martha was brought to his bedside yesterday for her first visit to him since he entered the hospital. The day also marked the first time the hospital had issued more than one bulletin on his condition.
Besides Mrs. Taft, the senator was visited by two of their sons, Lloyd and Robert Jr., yesterday and last night.
A third son, William Howard Taft III, American ambassador to Ireland, said in Dublin last night that the last word he had was a telephone call from a brother Sunday saying the senator was improving. The ambassador said that in any

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Tunney Drubs New Zealander:
NEW YORK July 27 (AP)—Blinded and staggering his face a bloody smear, Tom Heeney, the hard rock from down under, collapsed and fell a victim to a technical knockout in the eleventh round to his world's heavyweight championship battle with Gene Tunney last night.

Tunney, born and bred in New York, and defending his title at home for the first time, cut the steady, courageous New Zealander to pieces, subjecting him to one of the worst beatings a challenger ever received.

Upwards of 50,000 spectators saw Heeney wade in to unbroken slaughter through round after round.

The Associated Press scorecard showed Tunney winning at least nine of the eleven rounds, with Heeney winning the first and dividing honors with the titleholder in the second.

If the estimated gate receipts are correct, Promoter Tex Rickard and his six hundred millionaires suffered a loss in the neighborhood of $250,000. Tunney was guaranteed $525,000 with $100,000 going to Heeney.

Miss Ramer Is Wed Thursday:
Miss Virginia Caroline Ramer, Chambersburg Street, and J. H. Hemler, of Taneytown, were married at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Cathedral in Baltimore by Rev. Father Quinn.

They were attended by Miss Rose Smith and W. E. Birk. The bride, a daughter of Andrew Ramer, has been employed for the past five years as bookkeeper at M. A. Hartley and company.

Mr. Hemler, a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Hemler, is employed as a plumber in New York City.

The new plant has been in operation for about two weeks and it is expected that the canning season will last for at least two or three weeks longer, C. H. Musselman stated.

A total of 65 acres of beans has been contracted for by the company, Mr. Musselman said, and to harvest the beans a large group of boys has been employed in the field.

Removals: The Rev. C. W. Baker, has moved from New Bloomfield to 149 Water Street.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE LONESOME SEASON
This is the lonesome time of year. When by myself I have to stay. Once more vacation time is here. At camps the elder children play. Self-pitying at home I sit. And that I shouldn't do, I know. But here's the dismal truth of it: Now grandpa has nowhere to go.

They left, their faces wreathed with grins.
But I had something in my eye.
"We'll be away 'til school begins," They shouted as they said goodbye.

But oh, that glorious "Hello!"
"When school begins" seems far away.

For Grandpa has nowhere to go. And no one now with whom to play.

It isn't fun to stay alone
With only books upon a shelf.
And though it's wrong, I have to own

I'm feeling sorry for myself.
"When school begins!" Oh haste the day

When peace of mind again I'll know.
When they'll be back with me to play

And I will have somewhere to go.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

TALK IS SO FLUID
Talk is so fluid, but it is much more. It is full of personality, poetry, drama, and character. Words become beautiful and often stirring and inspiring, but it is because we are reminded of something in our own experience. We think and act out something of the author, but in talk all of the person is there. Thought is sculptured right before us in a manner that cold type could never match.

How few great writers are good talkers, and what a multitude of good talkers never become great writers. The ideal companion is the one who can talk entertainingly and instructively and at the same time can put much of all that he is into words that live and become doubly endeared.

Talk often flows as the river, singing a song on the way, but great writing has often been a thing of anguish and struggle to so form the thoughts as to make the words full of meaning, as well as ripe in construction. Lafcadio Hearn is one of the world's finest stylists in literature, yet he has confessed he spent days in the perfection of a single line that gave him satisfaction. And as a talker it took a rare mind to unlock the way into his mind so that the spoken words would be released.

How often we are disappointed in the talk of an author whose books have called forth our admiration. An Irishman once stated that John B. Gough, the noted temperance lecturer of long ago, "talked mid his coat-tails!" He drew great crowds of listeners because he was a great orator and made his talk fluid—with color, illustration, and depth of heart feeling.

The actual voice is full of color and its music lingers, like the remembered strains of a violin. To this day, though my Mother has been gone from me for over forty years, I can still recall her melodious voice and the words that she spoke in such beautiful fashion. Words are not enough. They must have body—flesh and blood! Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Educated Heart"

Sells Double House: Raymond Cushman, of West Water Street, has sold his double brick house to Charles A. McGuigan, of South Washington Street. Mr. Guigan takes possession at once. The transfer was made through William E. Olinger.

Crowds Flock to Stores for Bargains: With crowds of shoppers thronging the business places, participating in the event and taking advantage of the bargains offered for $1 and other attractive prices on more expensive merchandise, the forty progressive Gettysburg business men who staged a semi-annual dollar day were of the opinion that Saturday was more successful than any of its five predecessors.

EAST GERMANS GETTING FOOD FACING ARREST AS ALLIED SPIES

By DAN DE LUCE

BERLIN (AP)—The Communists implied today that East Germans getting free food from the West face arrest as spies, but hungry Germans they risk arrest as Western agents if they persist in coming to the West for aid.

The Soviet zone radio began broadcasting hourly, names and addresses of East German food recipients. It charged they were being recruited as future agents by Western espionage experts.

The intent of the radio name-calling was clear—to warn East Germans they risk arrest as Western agents if they persist in coming to the West for aid.

Long Line Form
But the trek of the hungry continued on a massive scale. Long lines again formed at the 40 West Berlin food distribution points before dawn in preparation for the 8 a. m. opening.

"It is a revolt against communism as big and as startling as the June 17 riots," one West Berlin official commented. Western police said a Communist attempt to incite West Berlin jobless to riot against the giveaway food program for Easterners newly was doomed to failure.

Scatter Leaflets
Some Red agents scattered leaflets late yesterday in front of West Berlin labor offices with phony instructions for the West Berlin unemployed to show up for free food today at points which have been supplying the Easterners.

The leaflets copied the format of midday throwaway editions of the Telegraph, West Berlin Socialist newspaper. Police said the relief program was so well known in West Berlin that few, if any, of the unemployed could be tricked into vainly going to the food distribution points.

Sinister Developments
The Soviet radio's roll call of alleged potential spies among the tidal wave of hungry East Germans was the most sinister development in the Communist attempts, futile so far, to dynamite the huge relief program.

The radio read out soberly the names of men and women it claimed had been supplied to the "agents and terror center"—the Fighting Group Against Inhumanity—by West Berlin officials.

Grandmother Beat Child; Gets 18 Mos.

CUMBERLAND, Md. (AP)—Mrs. Madeline Hannas of nearby Wiley Ford, W. Va., was sentenced to 18 months in the Maryland Reformatory yesterday for "beating, kicking and twisting around" her toddling grandson on a Cumberland street.

The grandmother, in her 60s, had said she was trying to keep the child awake.

Taft Family GATHERS AS HE WEAKENS

NEW YORK (AP)—The family of Sen. Robert A. Taft was gathered here today after his condition suddenly took a turn for the worse.

A New York Hospital bulletin last night reported the Senate majority leader was "generally weaker" and that his condition was "unsatisfactory." A later announcement said he was "resting a little more comfortably." He was reported not to be suffering any pain.

Yesterday was the first day of serious reports on the 63-year-old Ohio Republican, who has been at the hospital for several weeks for treatment of a hip lesion.

Wife Visits Him
His wife Martha was brought to his bedside yesterday for her first visit to him since he entered the hospital. The day also marked the first time the hospital had issued more than one bulletin on his condition.

Besides Mrs. Taft, the senator was visited by two of his sons, Lloyd and Robert Jr., yesterday and last night.

A third son, William Howard Taft III, American ambassador to Ireland, said in Dublin last night that the last word he had was a telephone call from a brother Sunday saying the senator was improving. The ambassador said that in any

May Lose Senate For GOP

Taft's sudden turn for the worse stirred speculation in Washington concerning changes in the national political scene if his illness should force him out of the Senate permanently. It could mean that the Democrats, although reported reluctant to do so at present, would wind up in control of the Senate. Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio is a Democrat and would be considered likely to name a Democrat to fill the spot. This would shift a GOP majority of one to a Democratic majority of one.

Hospital bulletins so far have given no clue to Taft's ailment. On July 8 he underwent an exploratory operation. Since then the hospital bulletins reflected optimism and it was announced he would return to Washington today. On Monday, however, the hospital said he would remain here indefinitely.

Yanks And White Sox May Make Two-Team Race Out Of League Contest For Pennant

By BEN PHLEGAR

AP Sports Writer

Could it be that New York and Chicago are going to settle down and make it a nice simple two-team race for the American League pennant?

Today and tomorrow should tell the story. The Yankees have a chance to wipe out the flag hopes for fourth-place Cleveland. The White Sox are in a position to do the same for Boston.

Neither series is the kind on which you'd want to risk the family jewels although both the Yankees and the White Sox looked good in winning last night. New York ran up a 4-0 margin in the first six innings against Cleveland and beat the Indians 4-2. Chicago took the measure of Boston by the same count with Same Mele, one-time member of the Red Sox, banging home three of the four tallies.

Winners Were Due
Both of the winners were due for a good game. They've been running 1-2 mostly by default for the past 10 days. The Yankees hadn't looked like champions since they captured a double-header in Chicago a week ago Sunday, and the White Sox had dropped six of their last nine games.

But the gap is widening now. New York leads Chicago by 5½ games and has an 8½-game bulge over Boston and 9 over Cleveland. The Indians have stayed close mainly because they had won six in a row from New York. With this bubble broken, they are in danger of fading fast.

Lift For Red Sox
Boston, on the other hand, stands to get a big psychological lift today when Ted Williams returns to Fenway Park. He was released from the Marine Corps yesterday. Whether his mere presence—since he says he's not yet in shape to play—will be enough to keep the Red Sox going remains to be seen.

Brooklyn maintained its seven-game edge over Milwaukee in the National League by swamping Chicago 13-2. The Braves edged New York 2-0. Third-place Philadelphia slipped nine games behind by losing 5-4 to Cincinnati, and St. Louis pulled into a fourth-place tie with the Giants with a 6-4 triumph over Pittsburgh.

A's Win Over Browns
In the other American League games, Detroit outlasted Washington 8-5 and Philadelphia downed St. Louis 9-7 on Ray Murray's two-run homer in the eighth. The largest New York crowd in two years—37,461—showed up to watch the Yankees break their Cleveland jinx. Joe Collins and Gil McDougald hit home runs and the other two Yankee tallies scored on a double by Irv Noren and a single by Phil Rizzuto in the sixth. Cleveland got its two in the seventh on a walk, a double by Al Rosen and a single by Luke Easter.

The Red Sox also drew their largest crowd—35,385—to watch them lose for the third time in 13 games. The loss went against Hector (Skinny) Brown, who had won 10 games this year and seven in a row. Mele and Minnie Minoso accounted for all the Chicago runs. Both had home runs.

Gave Game To Brooks
The Cubs gave the game away to Brooklyn in Chicago as a pair of errors contributed to seven unearned runs in the second inning. Johnny Podres checked the Cubs on four hits, three of them singles by Randy Jackson.

At Worthington and Hoyt Wilhelm held Milwaukee to three hits but the Braves didn't need any of them to score their two runs against the Giants. Three walks, two sacrifices and a long fly got the runs home. Bob Buhl, who scored one of the runs, won his seventh game.

Ray Jablonski drove in half of the Cardinals' runs against Pittsburgh with a pair of singles. Cliff Chambers and Joe Presko scattered seven Pirate hits with the only serious damage coming in the fifth inning on a three-run homer by Frank Thomas.

Cincinnati scored its five runs in the first four innings against the Phillies and Harry Perkowski weathered a four-run uprising in the eighth to post his ninth victory.

Fishing Licenses

Increased To $2.50

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania fishing licenses now cost $2.50 under a new law signed by Gov. John S. Fine that raised the fee by 50 cents.

The increase in revenue—about $375,000 more yearly—will be used for a hatchery expansion program and to help pay the cost of a proposed salary boost for State Fish Commission personnel.

The measure, affecting some 750,000 state anglers, goes into effect Jan. 1 when the 1954 licenses will be required.
Fine also signed into law yesterday a bill increasing the number of complimentary hunting licenses from 25 to 100. These are issued to federal or state game officials from other states.

Righthander Ronnie Kump has a 10-6 won-lost record according to latest official Class A South Atlantic League averages received here.

The Columbus, Ga., Red Bird hurler has made 20 appearances this season and hurled nine complete games. In his 129 innings on the mound he has permitted only 48 runs and fanned 62 batters. Kump, 5-feet-10 and 170-pounds, is a former Gettysburg High School star.

WELCOME TED BACK TO BOSTON

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams arrived at the scene of many of his glorious baseball moments today and within a few minutes signed a contract to play for the Boston Red Sox the remainder of the 1953 season and the 1954 campaign.

BOSTON (AP)—Owner Tom Yawkey and General Manager Joe Cronin had their dotting but muscular arms spread wide today to welcome Ted Williams back into the Boston Red Sox fold.

Williams, who completed his second wartime tour as a Marine pilot yesterday, motored here from Washington.

And, most likely, as thousands of Williams' admirers gather to tender him an ovation, he will go through the formalities of resuming his twice interrupted baseball career.

The first step will be restoring him to the active player list. That can be accomplished by a telephone call to the American League headquarters in Chicago. Then he will sign a contract for the remainder of the 1953 season.

Yawkey, who has paid Williams as much as $125,000 a season, indicated that coming to terms with the returned slugger would be easier and quicker than getting him reinstated. And, most likely, Williams will receive about $50,000 for returning to baseball.

SMALLER PEACH CROP BUT MORE APPLES AHEAD

Upper Adams County is getting set for what promises to be a slightly smaller peach crop than last year, and a slightly better overall apple crop than was harvested last season.

Assistant County Agent Fred H. Aminger said today that some few fruit growers are going to have excellent crops of peaches, while the majority of the orchards will be having an "off year" as far as peaches are concerned.

Some changes have been made in the apple picture in the upper county. The C. H. Musselman Co. has announced that early apples, of all varieties suitable for sauce, may be delivered now to the Gardners plant of the company. The company added that the cold storage facilities of the Gardners plant are being opened early in the year as a special service to growers.

New Appleauce Line

John A. Hauser, president of the company, said that a new appleauce line installed last year at Gardners will increase the market for both good sauce apples and for labor in that area. The apples are to be used to make appleauce and will be processed in the main plant of the C. H. Musselman Company this year.

Prepare For Aspers Bazaar

Aspers firemen turned from hose and ladder to hammer and saw this week in preparing for the annual bazaar to be held at the firehouse lawn Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Members of the company shown below about to begin work on the construction of stands are, left to right, Robert Deardorff, president of the company; Arthur Hoffman, treasurer; Ralph Thomas, William Wright, Arb Deardorff and Chief Charles Gulden.

President Hauser added that operations at the main plant in Biglerville will follow as other processing plants begin later.

Take Flower Inventory—One way to increase interest in raising flowers for improving the home grounds, according to A. O. Rasmussen, extension ornamental horticulturist of the Pennsylvania State College, is to take part in community floral shows. Take an inventory now of all flowering annuals and perennials suitable for exhibition.

Make Hay for Poultry—H. H. Kauffman, in charge of poultry extension work for the Pennsylvania State College, suggests making hay for feeding the poultry flock. Good leafy hay provides essential vitamins, proteins, and minerals. It may be chopped in lengths of 1 to 4 inches and fed on the floor or in racks.

went well in the stores where the novelty item was made available.

Both C. H. Musselman and Knouse Foods will continue this year their program started several years ago of processing peaches on an experimental scale. At Musselman's the peaches go into a peach pie preparation. Reports from both companies show the local peaches so far have indicated that they hold up well under processing and are able to compete with peaches from the west coast in quality and appearance.

Present indications are that after the experimental period is completed — the companies do not want to go into full scale production until they are sure it will go well — the processing of peaches should become a major industry in the county.

Practice Fast Picking—Save time and motions when picking tomatoes, reminds James O. Dutt, extension vegetable specialist of the Pennsylvania State College. Pick with both hands close together and take as many tomatoes in each hand as possible before moving them to the hamper.

Provide Poultry Range—Penn State extension poultry specialists say that an acre range will carry 500 to 600 pullets up to 22 weeks of age. From 100 to 200 turkey poult can be carried on a like area until they attain considerable size.

Practice Safety—When working with having equipment, always be on the alert and avoid getting into hazardous positions, remind Penn State extension agricultural engineers. Stop equipment for oiling, adjusting, or clogging. Keep safety guards in place.

Control Late Blight—Wet weather and cool nights contribute to the spread of late blight on tomatoes. County agricultural agents can supply full information on blight control measures.

Nitrogen Needed—Bursfoot, trefoil, a promising legume for Pennsylvania farms, seems to need more nitrogen than other legumes because it does not have so many nodules on its roots for taking nitrogen from the air. James Eakin, Penn State extension agronomist, suggests 400 pounds of 5-10-10 per acre after the first cutting.

Be Careful—Between 200 and 400 persons are killed each year by lightning. Joseph McGuray, Penn State extension agricultural engineer, says you are safest in a large building during a thunderstorm, especially if it is grounded. You are safer in a car or truck than out in the open. Lie down if caught out in the open.

Prevent Seeding—Unless you are saving seed, prevent seed forming on corn cobs, foxtails, poppies, phlox and St. Peter William, cautions A. O. Rasmussen, Penn State extension ornamental horticulturist. Self-seeding of these species will cause a lot of trouble next year because it will result in an overabundance of plants.

Fairfield Community News

FAIRFIELD HIGH TO HAVE SENIOR CLASS IN FALL

Fairfield High School will have its first senior class in a number of years when school opens this September.

Supervising Principal George Inskip said today about 30 out of the original 40 members of the class will be on hand for the opening of their Senior year.

The class began as the first Freshman class of the new high school three years ago. The next year it became the first Sophomore, last year the first Junior and this year will be the first Senior class of the new high school.

Big Enrollment Ahead
The community lost its high school about five years ago, with the students sent to Gettysburg. When the distance traveled caused the attempt at consolidation to be regarded as impractical, the system reopened its high school.

Fairfield school system will have probably the largest enrollment in its history this year, with 633 students scheduled to start classes this fall. Of that number 383, will be in the elementary classes, grades one through six, including 77 in the first grade, and 250 will be in the secondary schools, the junior-senior high school.

Construction of the additions to the present high school elementary school structure in Hamiltonban Twp., just outside Fairfield, is advancing rapidly, Inskip said. About 25 men from the O. H. Hostetter Co. of Hanover are engaged in putting in foundations for the additions which will about double the size of the present school and will make possible complete separation of the high school and elementary departments while permitting the two to make joint use of such facilities as the cafeteria and gymnasium.

Band Busy For Summer
The foundations for an addition to the west end of the building, scheduled to be ready for use when school begins this fall, are just about completed. The foundations for the eastern section, which is to be completed by next year, are well underway.

This year also marks the first summer in which the Fairfield school band has participated to any large extent in community affairs. Principal Inskip said.

The band has been practicing weekly, with 70 students taking instruction and 35 in the regular band, director Charles Rogers' charges will present a concert August 8 at the Fairfield Shoe Co. family picnic to be held at Big Pipe Creek. On

GOVERNOR HAILS SALES TAX AS SESSION PRIZE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. John S. Pine today marked down the sales tax as the prime accomplishment of the just-adjourned 1953 Legislature.

"We have placed the state's money affairs in order" was the way the governor sized it up in a statewide radio address a few hours after the General Assembly adjourned finally at 2 p. m., EST, yesterday.

He told Pennsylvanians they will become "accustomed" to the new one per cent sales tax after it goes into effect Sept. 1 and added: "Now that we have the sales tax I am convinced that you are not going to find it burdensome. I concede there will be some annoyance."

One of the final actions of the Legislature before getting out of town after a seven-month session was passage of an 823 million dollar general appropriation bill, of which 125 millions will be financed by the new sales levy.

Pass Appropriations
Although the gavel fell yesterday, the officially recorded time of adjournment will be 2 p. m., EST, Monday. Clocks in both House and Senate were turned back to maintain the fiction that the "official" adjournment deadline had not been reached.

A printing bottleneck and a mix-up on messages between the two houses forced the session into another day.

Final Turmoil
A dispute over the size of state road aid to local communities pushed adjournment into the afternoon. The final agreement provides for 18 million dollars a year in highway grants to cities, boroughs and townships, an increase of three millions over present payments.

Rep. Anthony J. Petrosky (D-Westmoreland), prior to the agreement, threw the House in a turmoil with a threat to force a full floor vote on the issue. Most of the lawmakers had departed for home Monday night.

His objections brought about an increase to the previous figure of 17 millions a year. The communities now share 15 millions annually.

Official hottest-in-the-world outdoor temperature is 136.4 degrees once recorded in Libya.

INTERESTING PEOPLE... Last week I met a very talented fellow by the name of Heilman. He resides in Mechanicsburg, and his business is, of all things, restoring old cars.

Charley Rider and John Baker both told me about him, as they each had him do some work on their cars. John, a 1911 Ford, and Charley has an old Buick. Heilman's place is right on the edge of town in an old converted barn. Among the old buggy parts, and scores of cans of paint, stands Rider's Buick with a new top in its final stages of completion. All of the sewing done on this black patent leather top is all the more remarkable because it was done on a sewing machine which is over 40 years old! In the back of the shop is an ancient four seater buggy, awaiting the master's touch. This one belongs to a fellow who is willing to wait almost a full year for complete restoration. Mr. Heilman specializes in body work and upholstery. He does not do any mechanical work at all. He's a genial old fellow, and will take time out to talk to you about the "days gone by" when they really knew how to make an automobile. His early training in the automotive industry consisted of working on the old wooden bodied cars. He was one of the artisans who constructed the framework of those old classics... Funny thing—Mr. Heilman is busier now than he was when those old cars were in style... HH

SHOWDOWN ON IMMIGRATION BILL IS NEAR

WASHINGTON (P)—An emergency immigration bill urged by President Eisenhower, but buffeted by sharp controversy in Congress, approached a showdown vote in the Senate today.

Republican leaders, calling the Senate into session two hours earlier than usual, said they were optimistic about passage even though they foresaw a fairly close vote.

The compromise bill is somewhat more restrictive than a measure the House passed last night 221-185 to admit 217,000 Iron Curtain refugees and other special-quota immigrants in the next three years.

Would Include Chinese

Under the Senate bill, the number of refugees would be limited to 209,000. This compares to the 240,000 Eisenhower asked Congress to admit in the next two years to help provide asylum for persons who have fled from Communist tyranny, and other homeless refugees.

Too Hot For Harmony At N. Y. Barbecue

ILION, N. Y. (P)—Chicken wasn't all that sizzled at the Ilion Fish and Game Club's barbecue.

Musicians at the four-hour affair played for a while in 90-degree temperatures and then announced that "the sun is beating down so strongly we can't keep our instruments in tune."

They left.

An amendment written into the Senate bill last night would permit 2,000 Chinese refugees whose visa requests were endorsed by the Chinese Nationalist government on Formosa to enter this country.

Under both House and Senate bills, the great bulk of refugees would come from Europe.

After a day of wrangling, the House also voted to include 2,000 Portuguese, 2,000 Arabs, 2,000 Japanese, 2,000 European refugees who have fled from Red China, and now are residing in Hong Kong, 2,000 Chinese refugees and 3,000 former Polish soldiers now in exile in England.

Except for the Chinese refugees and the Poles, none of these groups would be admissible under the Senate bill.

Changes Made In Pa. School Law; Other New Statutes

HARRISBURG, Pa. — The State Council of Education will fix regulations for admittance of school beginners of less than five years and seven months under a new law, signed by Gov. John S. Fine.

The measure, receiving final action Monday, also requires a school census of all children between birth and 18 years of age. Previously the school census applied to children between six and 18.

The old law passed in 1951, created a stir when it removed from school boards discretion in setting beginners' starting ages.

Other School Changes

Approval by the public instruction department of all plans for remodeling or building new school buildings instead of merely submission of the plans to the State Council of Education.

Increase from $150 a day to $3

the amount of state aid which can be allocated to educate a blind child under eight years of age.

Removal of an exemption that newsboys over 16 years of age need not obtain an employment certificate to work during school hours.

Need State Okay

Require prior approval of the Public Instruction Department before school districts can declare half-day sessions.

Make a mandatory for school boards issue high school diplomas to students who satisfactorily complete the required courses.

Require approval of the Public Instruction Department of the cost of school transportation.

Require members of a school district to choose in December if delegate to the joint school committee.

Assessors' Pay Up

Other new laws signed by the governor will:

Increase the salary of real estate assessors in fourth to eighth class counties from $7 a day to $10.

Increase from $750 to $850 the amount of state aid for per capita maintenance of wards in the Elwyn Training School, Delaware County.

Give veterans who return to public school teaching credit for time in the service in the State Public Employees Retirement System if he already has not taken advantage of such credit previously.

Permit banks to make a single installment loan of more than $3,500 if the rate of interest is not more than six per cent a year.

Value school board contracts for labor, materials and supplies if they are technically in violation of the school code without any evidence of fraud or conspiracy.

Authorize school directors to attend at taxpayers' expense educational conventions held within 300 miles of Pennsylvania state boundaries.

Allow printed copies of federally approved rates, fares and tariffs to be admitted as evidence in Pennsylvania courts and eliminating the requirement that only the original documents are admissible.

Permit building and loan associations to establish branch offices in the community in which its principal place of business is located.

Permit school directors, in filling vacancies, to make the appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term instead of until the next municipal election.

Authorize county school boards to set up special classes or schools for handicapped children, the cost of which will be borne by local school districts with state aid.

Allow the superintendent of public instruction to advance the classification of a school district if there is evidence that the district has increased its population sufficiently since the last census.

Permit urban redevelopment authorities to sell, lease or transfer real estate outside of a specific redevelopment area.

Make it a crime, subject to a $1,000 fine and a year in jail, to steal or buy as junk metal, a veteran's grave marker.

Require a shoofier in soft coal mines to shut off his electric lamp when making examinations for gas and to require him to make such an examination before and after firing each shot.

Ban the payment of any salaries to members of school municipal authorities to except for the remainder of the term of those still in office and to require treasurers of such authorities to post bonds.

Prohibit the erection of a smokestack, radio antenna, elevated tank or similar air obstructions within 1,000 feet of the end of a runway of a commercially licensed airport.

Increase from 15 cents to 50 cents the cost of registering a gun.

Pair Waive Hearing In Youth's Death

SCRANTON, Pa. (U. P.) — Two Scranton men were committed to Lackawanna County Jail on Monday after waiving a hearing on charges they were responsible for the death of 17-year-old Robert Flynn in a fire and explosion last Wednesday.

Daniel Bolish and Louis Serrano, both 43, waived hearing when they were arraigned before Alderman Patrick J. Boland on charges of arson and murder.

Police said the two were accused of setting fire to an unoccupied house in nearby Dunmore last Wednesday morning. The house was rocked by a blast and several hours later, young Flynn was found badly burned and wandering in a dazed condition nearby. He died later that day at Scranton State Hospital.

Changes Made In Pa. School Law; Other New Statutes

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Council of Education will fix regulations for admittance of school beginners of less than five years and seven months under a new law, signed by Gov. John S. Fine.

The measure, receiving final action Monday, also requires a school census of all children between birth and 18 years of age. Previously the school census applied to children between six and 18.

The old law, passed in 1951, created a stir when it removed from school boards discretion in setting beginners' starting ages.

Other School Changes

Other new changes in the school code call for:

Approval by the public instruction department of all plans for remodeling or building new school buildings instead of merely submission of the plans to the State Council of Education.

Increase from $1.50 a day to $3

the amount of state aid which can be allocated to educate a blind child under eight years of age.

Removal of an exemption that newsboys over 16 years of age need not obtain an employment certificate to work during school hours.

Need State Okay

Require prior approval of the Public Instruction Department before school districts, facing crowded conditions, can declare half day sessions.

Make it mandatory that school boards issue high school diplomas to students who satisfactorily complete the required courses.

Require approval by the Public Instruction Department and by the county school board before two or more school districts can build a joint school and require that members of the jointure pay the cost of school transportation.

Require members of joint school districts to choose in December its delegate to the joint school committee.

Assessors' Pay Up

Other new laws signed by the governor will:

Increase the salary of real estate assessors in fourth to eighth class counties from $7 a day to $10.

Increase from $750 to $850 the amount of state aid for per capita maintenance of wards in the Elwyn Train School, Delaware County.

Give veterans who return to public school teaching credit for time in the service in the State Public Employees Retirement System if he already has not taken advantage of such credit previously.

Permit banks to make a single installment loan of more than $3,500 if the rate of interest is not more than six per cent a year.

Validate school board contracts for labor, materials and supplies if they are technically in violation of the school code without any evidence of fraud or conspiracy.

Authorize school directors to attend at taxpayers' expense education conventions held within 300 miles of Pennsylvania state boundaries.

Allow printed copies of federally approved rates, fares and tariffs to be admitted as evidence in Pennsylvania courts and eliminating the requirement that only the original documents are admissible.

Permit building and loan associations to establish branch offices in the community in which its principal place of business is located.

Permit school directors, in filling vacancies, to make the appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term instead of until the next municipal election.

Authorize county school boards to set up special classes or schools for handicapped children, the cost of which will be borne by local school districts with state aid.

Allow the superintendent of public instruction to advance the classification of a school district if there is evidence that the district has increased its population sufficiently since the last census.

Permit urban redevelopment authorities to sell, lease or transfer real estate outside of a specific redevelopment area.

Make it a crime, subject to a $1,000 fine and a year in jail, to steal or buy as junk metal, a veteran's grave marker.

Require a shotfirer in soft coal mines to shut off his electric lamp when making examinations for gas and to require him to make such an examination before and after firing each shot.

Ban the payment of any salaries to members of school municipal authorities to except for the remainder of the term of those still in office and to require treasurers of such authorities to post bonds.

Prohibit the erection of a smokestack, radio antenna, elevated tank or similar air obstructions within 1,000 feet of the end of a runway of a commercially licensed airport.

Increase from 15 cents to 50 cents the cost of registering a gun.

Pair Waive Hearing In Youth's Death

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Two Scranton men were committed to Lackawanna County jail on Monday after waiving a hearing on charges they were responsible for the death of 17-year-old Robert Flynn in a fire and explosion last Wednesday.

Daniel Bolish and Louis Serrian, both 43, waived hearing when they were arraigned before Alderman Patrick J. Boland on charges of arson and murder.

Police said the two were accused of setting fire to an unoccupied house in nearby Dunmore last Wednesday morning. The house was rocked by a blast and several hours later, young Flynn was found badly burned and wandering in a dazed condition nearby. He died later that day at Scranton State Hospital.

BYRNES CHOICE DRAWS PROTEST

WASHINGTON — Nomination of Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, no stranger to controversy, as a U. S. delegate to the United Nations General Assembly, has touched off a protest.

Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said on Monday in a telegram to President Eisenhower that Byrnes' appointment would be "widely interpreted as an abandonment by the United States of its championing of human rights."

White House press secretary James C. Hagerly declined to comment on the telegram, in which White said Communists could brand Byrnes as "a proponent of racism and a foe of democracy."

White lashed out especially at Byrnes' threat to close the public schools in South Carolina if the Supreme Court should rule that racial segregation in schools is unconstitutional.

Byrnes, 74-year-old Democrat, promised in his campaign for governor to maintain segregation in the schools and also to suppress the Ku Klux Klan in the state. In accordance with the latter pledge, a law against masking and intimidation was enacted.

Byrnes supported Eisenhower for president.

Give Food To E. Berliners

BERLIN (P)—More than 100,000 hungry East Germans swarmed into West Berlin to pick up free Western food Tuesday in a mass demonstration of communism's failure to feed its own people.

They began lining up at dawn. The crowds grew by the hour. By midafternoon it looked as if the turnout would exceed the 120,000 fed on Monday when the relief program backed by a 15 million dollar United States donation began.

The 2-day total approached the 250,000 mark.

Before it ends in two weeks, the plan is expected to give parcels to more than a million East Germans.

Milton Eisenhower Completes His Tour

RIO DE JANEIRO (P)—Milton Eisenhower wound up his 36-day fact finding tour of Latin America on Monday with a lengthy interview with Brazil's President Getulio Vargas.

The U. S. President's brother is scheduled to leave by plane today for the United States.

The subject of Eisenhower's 90-minute talk with Vargas was not disclosed, but observers said it probably dealt with the Brazilian economic situation.

GROWING DEER HERD

PHOENIX, Ariz. (P)—The Arizona Game and Fish Commission believes the deer herd in the Kaibab National Forest at the Grand Canyon is the fastest growing herd in the country.

In 1950 the kill by licensed hunters was 2,858. In 1951 it was 2,515 and last year it was 4,312.

Give Food To E. Berliners

BERLIN (AP) — More than 100,000 hungry East Germans swarmed into West Berlin to pick up free Western food Tuesday in a mass demonstration of communism's failure to feed its own people.

They began lining up at dawn. The crowds grew by the hour. By mid-afternoon it looked as if the turnout would exceed the 120,000 fed on Monday when the relief program backed by a 15 million dollar United States donation began.

Red propagandists shrilled in embarrassed rage but the Communists did not interfere. Except for an occasional check to keep the people nervous, Red border police let them return unhindered through the Iron Curtain with their precious gifts.

GROWING DEER HERD

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The Arizona Game and Fish Commission believes the deer herd in the Kaibab National Forest at the Grand Canyon is the fastest growing herd in the country. In 1950 the kill by licensed hunters was 2,858. In 1951 it was 2,515 and last year it was 4,312.

but even so the deer have multiplied faster than the rising kill, a joint report of the commission and the U.S. Forest Service shows.

MURDER VERDICT IN GASPE CASE

GASPE, Que. (AP) — A coroner's jury ruled on Monday that two Pennsylvania hunters, whose bear-mauled remains were found scattered through the bush of the Gaspé wilderness, had been "murdered by gunshot wounds." The third member of the party, the jury found, died of "unknown causes."

Before the verdict, Wilbert Coffin, 37-year-old prospector, told the inquest that other Americans also were in the wilderness at the start of the bear-hunting expedition that ended with the deaths of Eugene Lindsay, 45, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., his son Richard, 17, and Fred Clair, 29, of East Freedom, Pa.

Coffin testified the three Pennsylvanians introduced him to the other two Americans on June 10. He said he could not remember their names or they were driving a jeep. He said he believed the vehicles license plates were black with orange numerals.

The prospector said the Pennsylvania hunters introduced the other two Americans as "some friends from the states" also hunting bear. He estimated the pair was between 35 and 40 years old and he said he did not see any rifles in their jeep.

Jailed Vagrants Win Painting Jobs

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — A hitch in jail proved a blessing in disguise for two men who went broke here while traveling across country to join a carnival.

They were arrested on a charge of entering an unoccupied dwelling. After trial, they volunteered to do painting jobs at the court house.

They proved such good hands that, after they were convicted and put on a year's probation, the county hired them. Now, they are painting bridges and county buildings.

4 STATE AREAS GET U. S. FUNDS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Funds for four Pennsylvania flood control programs are included in a $440,000,000 appropriation bill for the Army Engineers which President Eisenhower signed on Monday.

The Pennsylvania projects are the Allegheny River Reservoir, Albion, Bradford and Johnsonburg.

Meanwhile, the House Armed Services Committee passed a bill authorizing a half-billion dollars for construction of Army, Navy and Air Force installations including five in Pennsylvania. They are: Carlisle Barracks, $95,000; Letter-Kenny Ordnance Depot, $783,000; Naval Boiler and Turbine Laboratory, Philadelphia, $1,431,000; Greater Pittsburgh Airport, $130,000, and the Olmsted Air Force base, Middletown, $5,594,000.

Funds to continue operation of the Bureau of Mines synthetic fuels plant and laboratory at Bruceton, Pa., are included in a $116,269,669 reclamation program which has been approved by a Senate-House conference committee. The reclamation program is a part of the $433,561,550 Interior Department appropriations bill.

Marine TV Camera Studies Hazards

OTTAWA (AP) — Canada's only underwater television camera will be used to study the structure of dangerous Ripple Rock in the Seymour narrows near Campbell River, B. C.

Capt. H. R. Smyth, in charge of radio and electrical engineering trials for the National Research Council, will supervise its use during the west coast experiment.

Ripple Rock has been a hazard to navigation for years, but previous attempts to remove it were unsuccessful due to its peculiar underwater structure and the strong tides surrounding it.

The camera is enclosed in a watertight steel cylinder weighing about 300 pounds. Images picked up by the sensitive camera tube are transmitted to television screens aboard the surface vessel, by means of a coaxial cable. All the camera's operations are guided by remote control.

It has two viewing units — one for underwater observation, and an auxiliary unit fitted with a special movie camera which makes permanent records without interfering with ordinary observation.

The Canadian government has renamed the 16 peaks surrounding Maligne Lake in Jasper National Park, Alberta, Canada, the "Queen Elizabeth Ranges."

BILL TO BOOST POSTAL RATES IS "SHELVED"

WASHINGTON — The House Post Office Committee Tuesday shelved indefinitely the administration's "must" bill for increased postal rates.

The committee decision to give no further consideration to the bill at this session was taken in the face of strong opposition to the measure and the danger of no compromise this week.

Chairman Rees R. Hall said: "The announced intention of the Senate not to begin hearings on the postal rate bill, combined with the early and late sessions of the House, for the remainder of the week, makes it impracticable to continue work on the bill at this time."

500 Million Deficit

Rees has been under strong administration pressure to get a bill out before adjournment.

The Post Office Department has been running more than 500 million dollars a year in the red, and the Eisenhower administration wants a general hike in rates to wipe out some of this deficit.

It proposed to raise first class letter mail from three cents to four cents.

Rees said "consideration of the measure will be resumed if this session extends beyond this week or at the beginning of the next session."

Missing Minister's Body Is Found

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—The body of a retired West Chester Presbyterian minister, missing more than a month, has been found in a wooded area in Maple Township.

The body of the Rev. A. Burris Hallock Sr., 77, was discovered on Monday by a Newtown Square resident who was walking through the woods with his child and a neighbor's youngster. Mr. Hallock disappeared June 17 from a Newtown Square convalescent home.

He was identified by a son, the Rev. A. Burris Hallock Jr., pastor of the Potomac Presbyterian Church, Delaware County Deputy Coroner William Patterson said the Rev. Dr. Hallock died of natural causes.

Family Of Five Killed In Crash

SANDUSKY, Ohio. (AP)—Orville Black, his wife and three of their children were killed early Tuesday when their car collided with a truck just south of Sandusky.

Their other child, Nancy, 7, was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital in "very critical" condition.

Charles Allen Johnston, 26, of New Castle, Pa., the truck driver, was also taken to the hospital—for cuts and shock.

Dead beside the 27-year-old father were his wife, Ann, 26, a son, Edward, 5, and two daughters, Kathryn, 3, and Barbara, 2.

State highway patrolmen said they all died of skull fractures or multiple fractures.

Blair, a farm hand, had lived at Wellington, Ohio.

Will Honor Memory Of Jewish Physician

JERUSALEM (AP)—Scholars here are preparing for next year's 750th anniversary of the death of the great Jewish writer, physician and religious philosopher Maimonides (Rambam) who spent a considerable part of his life in Egypt but is buried in Tiberias on the shores of the Sea of Galilee. Not far from his tomb, venerated by orthodox Jews as a Holy place, a special monument is to be erected.

In Jerusalem, a group of Hebrew University scholars are planning to re-edit Maimonides' religious writings while Dr. Sussman Muntner, a physician and expert on the history of Jewish medicine, is continuing the publication of Maimonides' famous medical manuscripts. Muntner, until now, has re-published (and commented) his books on asthma, polio and on Hippocrates.

Another book by Maimonides which has been rediscovered and edited by the Jerusalem Orientalist Prof. Gotthold Weil, former director of the Hebrew National and University Library, deals with the span of human life.

Divorce Statistics

CANBERRA (AP)—Australians divorced in 1952 included 65 couples who had been married 30 years or more and who had at least five children. One couple married less than five years, with four children, was divorced.

A table of divorces according to the duration of marriage and the number of children showed that the biggest group was of couples married between five and nine years without children. Of a total of 7,042 divorces, 990 were of this group.

Raccoons Reward Hospital Handout

ALTADENA, Calif. (AP)—The patients at La Vina Sanitarium pay little for their zoological show, but they get lots of entertainment.

The show generally starts at dusk when four or five furtive raccoons steal onto the sanitarium grounds and look for the bounty of food that the patients leave for them.

If the menu is not to their liking, the raccoons sample the food next door. If the raccoons want more food, the patients open their cookie or candy boxes.

After the handout, the little masked bandits scamper down the hall, and the evening show is over.

PEACOCK TROUBLE

CHICAGO (AP)—Mrs. Sydney Katz called police who doubted her complaint that there was a peacock in the backyard.

Sure enough, there was. Police men netted the resplendent bird with the help of the animal keeper of a nearby zoo.

BYRNES CHOICE DRAWS PROTEST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nomination of Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, no stranger to controversy, as a U. S. delegate to the United Nations General Assembly, has touched off a protest.

Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said on Monday in a telegram to President Eisenhower that Byrnes' appointment would be "widely interpreted as an abandonment by the United States of its championing of human rights."

White House press secretary James C. Hagerly declined to comment on the telegram, in which White said Communists could brand Byrnes as "a proponent of racism and a foe of democracy."

White lashed out especially at Byrnes' threat to close the public schools in South Carolina if the Supreme Court should rule that racial segregation in schools is unconstitutional.

Byrnes, 74-year-old Democrat, promised in his campaign for governor to maintain segregation in the schools and also to suppress the Ku Klux Klan in the state. In accordance with the latter pledge, a law against masking and intimidation was enacted.

Byrnes supported Eisenhower for president.

Give Food To E. Berliners

BERLIN (AP)—More than 100,000 hungry East Germans swarmed into West Berlin to pick up free Western food Tuesday in a mass demonstration of communism's failure to feed its own people.

They began lining up at dawn. The crowds grew by the hour. By midafternoon it looked as if the turnout would exceed the 120,000 fed on Monday when the relief program backed by a 15 million dollar United States donation began. The 2-day total approached the 250,000 mark.

Before it ends in two weeks, the plan is expected to give parcels to more than a million East zoners.

Red propagandists shrilled in embarrassed rage but the Communists did not interfere. Except for an occasional check to keep the people nervous, Red border police let them return unhindered through the Iron Curtain with their precious gifts.

Milton Eisenhower Completes His Tour

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Milton Eisenhower wound up his 36-day fact finding tour of Latin America on Monday with a lengthy interview with Brazil's President Getulio Vargas.

The U. S. President's brother is scheduled to leave by plane today for the United States. The subject of Eisenhower's 90-minute talk with Vargas was not disclosed, but observers said it probably dealt with the Brazilian economic situation.

HOUSE PLANT WORK IN AUGUST

Many of the rare beauties of indoor plants over winter are the fruits of timely tasks started in August. Here are a few suggestions to assist beginners and to improve cultural methods of more experienced growers.

Do not allow the old reported poinsettia plant or the new specimens started from spring cuttings to grow tall and spindly. Pinch out the tips of the long shoots to promote laterals from the leaf nodes. Low, many-branched plants bear more and finer heads at Christmas time.

Tall, leggy geraniums are worthless as indoor plants. They are unsightly and rarely produce flowers. Cut back the longer branches of old plants in early August and root them in clean sand under glass. Cuttings should be 4 to 5 inches long, with the lower end cut diagonally just below a leaf joint. All the leaves but a top pair should be removed. Observe one major rule with geraniums — Grow low, bushy plants for maximum blooms.

Beginners with gardenias should buy small potted plants this month and keep them thriving where there is plenty of uniform light but protection from sun when the rays are hot. Later the first flower buds should be pinched off to promote sturdier and bushier growth.

Buy vigorous cyclamen bulbs (tubers) and pot them any time before late August, allowing the tips to protrude above the soil. Keep the soil moist but not wet. Readers who have encountered problems with this beautiful plant should write the editor, enclosing an addressed, stamped envelope, for a free copy of our cyclamen growing instructions.

For freesia bulbs as soon as they are available at your local dealer's store or order them for immediate delivery from catalogues of larger nurseries and seed firms.

Bulbs of the attractive gloxinia potted in early August will bring this plant a fertile bloom lighted and enriched with some pulverized cattle manure from a summer pasture field after it is well weathered.

ered.

Window boxes of special pots of English ivy (Hedera helix) add cheer to winter living rooms. This hardy vine is easy to propagate for this role by rooting cuttings (vine tips) in water, sand or sandy loam at this time.

Cinerarias are easy to grow from seed. In fact, many experienced growers treat this indoor ornamental as an annual and grow new plants each fall from seed sown in shade in early August. Three factors are stressed: (1) Buy fresh, high-quality seed; (2) Use a fine seeded soil composed of sifted garden loam, fine leafmold, and sand; (3) Barely cover with sand, lightly sprinkled over the seed.

Try Browallias by sowing seed any time in August. Follow the general methods suggested for starting cinerarias. Move the small seedlings to individual pots later.

Growers who have never grown the lovely Lachenalia should pot bulbs as soon as they are procurable. Also write the editor this month or later to ask all the questions that arise about indoor plants.

Growing instructions.

be widely utilized for mulching.

Of course, most gardeners and farmers use straw, coarse hay, shredded corn stalks, sorghum, cane bagasse, grass clippings, and similar waste and semi-waste vegetation for summer mulching. But in many roles it is not easy to apply these coarser materials. For example, any waste vegetation may be used to mulch the area between rows of strawberries but to work such material uniformly around the plants in the rows and beneath the runners is an almost impossible task. Here shredded corn cobs fill one of their most useful roles. And likewise shredded cobs are easy to apply around ornamental plants, along most other row vegetables, or even in small lawn beds.

Two obstacles are encountered in obtaining the finished material by suburban gardeners and by many farmers as well. First, cobs may be somewhat difficult to obtain even though they are wasted by thousands of tons every year; second, their crushing may offer a problem.

Usually around commercial feed mills corn cobs and their disposal are an actual source of expense. Too, farmers who shell their corn before marketing it usually have a huge surplus of cobs which they burn. Rarely is it impossible to locate a liberal supply of cobs which can be obtained for their removal or at a minimum cost.

In several communities the editor knows of neighbors, both urban and rural, who have banded together to purchase a small hammer-type mill for grinding

cobs for this purpose. Many farmers already have and operate such a mill for feed grinding. This problem, too, can be solved without undue trouble.

To serve at their maximum value cobs should be crushed fairly fine. They should be sacked and stored in a dry room or in an open bin until used. If they are dry at the time of grinding they will not heat in storage. Experience indicates that gardeners and farmers who adopt ground corn cobs for summer mulching never have a sufficient supply. Therefore, it is usually advisable to obtain and store more than estimated needs indicate.

Poultrymen find crushed corn cobs second only to peat moss as poultry house litter. The particles absorb moisture well and retain their usefulness for a considerable period. Thus, an extra supply for summer mulching may come in handy when litter is scarce over winter.

If cobs are crushed quite fine for mulching, decay will not be long delayed after one year's use. Usually the cobs may be raked up and used on the compost heap before winter or left on the ground and turned under the next spring. Too, it is possible to utilize them in such perennial roles as for strawberries over and over by adding to the coating every spring or summer.

The site of an old U.S. army post, Fort McCrae, lies buried beneath the waters of Elephant Butte Lake, largest body of water in New Mexico.

France Is Called Expensive Country

PARIS (AP) — France is one of the most expensive countries in the world, and here, from the newspaper, Le Figaro, are some examples of why:

Unloading a cargo of coal from a 7,500-ton ship costs $1,000 in Holland, $1,700 in Belgium, and $3,200 in France. Automobile shock absorbers cost 690 francs in England, and 1,300 in France.

land, and 1,300 in France.

It takes 59 hours to make and assemble an English tractor, and the same process in France takes 135 hours. Raw sulphur costs 13,000 francs in Britain, and 26,000 in France. Nickel costs 375 francs in Canada, 450 in Germany and Britain, and 775 per kilogram in France.

Forty-two species of termites live on Barro Colorado island in the Canal Zone.

TALK — THEN ACTION

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, N. Y. (AP) — Thirty-five village policemen here heard a lecture on the fundamentals of obstetrics, so they would know how to pinch-hit as midwives if the need arose. Dr. G. Borden Granger then opened a question-and-answer period. It was cut short when he received an emergency call to Mercy Hospital.

MURDER VERDICT IN GASPE CASE

GASPE, Que. (AP) — A coroner's jury ruled on Monday that two Pennsylvania hunters, whose bear-mauled remains were found scattered through the bush of the Gaspe wilderness, had been "murdered by gunshot wounds." The third member of the party, the jury found, died of "unknown causes."

Before the verdict, Wilbert Coffin, 37-year-old prospector, told the inquest that other Americans also were in the wilderness at the start of the bear-hunting expedition that ended with the deaths of Eugene Lindsay, 45, of Hollidaysburg, Pa.; his son Richard, 17, and Fred Claar, 20, of East Freedom, Pa. Coffin testified the three Pennsylvanians introduced him to the other two Americans on June 10. He said he could not remember their names but they were driving a jeep. He said he believed the vehicles license plates were black with orange numerals.

The prospector said the Pennsylvania hunters introduced the other two Americans as "some friends from the states" also hunting bear. He estimated the pair was between 35 and 40 years old and he said he did not see any rifles in their jeep.

Jailed Vagrants Win Painting Jobs

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — A hitch in jail proved a blessing in disguise for two men who went broke here while traveling across country to join a carnival.

They were arrested on a charge of entering an uninhabited dwelling. Awaiting trial, they volunteered to do painting jobs at the court house.

They proved such good hands that, after they were convicted and put on a year's probation, the county hired them. Now, they are painting bridges and county buildings.

PROLIFIC PROGENY
HOLDENVILLE, Okla. (AP) — When Mrs. Mary Florence O'Donnell died here recently at 83, she left a family of 155 direct descendants.

She was survived by 13 of her 17 children, 67 grandchildren, 71 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren.

Buy Dozen Eggs, Gets 2 Dozen Yolks

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. A. W. Hinton is sure the era of the one-yolked egg is a thing of the past.

The first egg of a dozen she bought had three yolks. Believing this was just an accident, she cracked another egg. Two yolks this time. A third egg also gave up two yolks.

The final count: 12 eggs — 23 yolks.

4 STATE AREAS GET U. S. FUNDS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Funds for four Pennsylvania flood control programs are included in a $440,000 appropriation bill for the Army Engineers which President Eisenhower signed on Monday.

The Pennsylvania projects are the Allegheny River Reservoir, Allentown, Bradford and Johnsonburg.

Meanwhile, the House Armed Services Committee passed a bill authorizing a half-billion dollars for construction of Army, Navy and Air Force installations including five in Pennsylvania.

They are: Carlisle Barracks, $95,000; Letter - Kenny Ordnance Depot, $783,000; Naval Boiler and Turbine Laboratory, Philadelphia, $1,431,000; Greater Pittsburgh Airport, $130,000, and the Olmsted Air Force base, Middletown, $5,594,000.

Funds to continue operation of the Bureau of Mines synthetic fuels plant and laboratory at Bruceton, Pa., are included in a $116,269,660 reclamation program which has been approved by a Senate-House conference committee. The reclamation program is a part of the $433,561,550 Interior Department appropriations bill.

Marine TV Camera Studies Hazards

OTTAWA (AP) — Canada's only underwater television camera will be used to study the structure of dangerous Ripple Rock in the Seymour narrows near Campbell River, B. C.

Capt. H. R. Smyth, in charge of radio and electrical engineering trials for the National Research Council, will supervise its use during the west coast experiment.

Ripple Rock has been a hazard to navigation for years, but previous attempts to remove it were unsuccessful due to its peculiar underwater structure and the strong tides surrounding it.

The camera is enclosed in a watertight steel cylinder weighing about 300 pounds. Images picked up by the sensitive camera tube are transmitted to television screens aboard the surface vessel, by means of a coaxial cable. All the camera's operations are guided by remote control.

It has two viewing units — one for underwater observation, and an auxiliary unit fitted with a special movie camera which makes permanent records without interfering with ordinary observation.

The Canadian government has renamed the 16 peaks surrounding Maligne Lake in Jasper National Park, Alberta, Canada, the "Queen Elizabeth Ranges."

BILL TO BOOST POSTAL RATES IS "SHELVED"

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Post Office Committee Tuesday shelved indefinitely the administration's "must" bill for increased postal rates.

The committee decision to give no further consideration to the bill at this session was taken in the light of strong opposition to the measure and the drive for adjournment this weekend.

Chairman Rees (R-Kan.) said: "The announced intention of the (Senate) not to begin hearings on the postal rate bill, combined with the early and late sessions of the House, for the remainder of the week, makes it impracticable to continue work on the bill at this time."

500 Million Deficit
Rees has been under strong administration pressure to get a bill out before adjournment.

The Post Office Department has been running more than 500 million dollars a year in the red, and the Eisenhower administration wants a general hike in rates to wipe out some of this deficit.

It proposed to raise first class letter mail from three cents to four cents.

Rees said "consideration of the measure will be resumed if this session extends beyond this week or at the beginning of the next session."

Missing Minister's Body Is Found

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — The body of a retired West Chester Presbyterian minister, missing more than a month, has been found in a wooded area in Maple Township.

The body of the Rev. A. Burtis Hallock Sr., 77, was discovered on Monday by a Newtown Square resident who was walking through the woods with his child and a neighbor's youngster. Mr. Hallock disappeared June 17 from a Newtown Square convalescent home.

He was identified by a son, the Rev. A. Burtis Hallock Jr., pastor of the Pottstown Presbyterian Church. Delaware County Deputy Coroner William Patterson said the Rev. Dr. Hallock died of natural causes.

Family Of Five Killed In Crash

SANDUSKY, Ohio, (AP) — Orville Blair, his wife and three of their children were killed early Tuesday when their car collided with a truck just south of Sandusky.

Their other child, Nancy, 7, was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital in "very critical" condition.

Charles Allen Johnston, 26, of New Castle, Pa., the truck driver, was also taken to the hospital—for cuts and shock.

Dead beside the 27-year-old father were his wife, Ann, 26; a son, Edward 5; and two daughters, Kathryn, 3, and Barbara, 2.

State highway patrolmen said they all died of skull fractures or multiple fractures.

Blair, a farm hand, had lived at Wellington, Ohio.

OPERATIONS EXTENDED
MANILA (AP) — Operations of the World Health Organization are being extended to include most of the islands of the Western Pacific.

Dr. I. C. Pang, WHO regional, said the new areas include Guam, the trust territories of the Pacific, American Samoa and all of the British, French, Australian and New Zealand territories in the Pacific.

DIVORCE STATISTICS

CANBERRA (AP) — Australians divorced in 1952 included 65 couples who had been married 30 years or more and who had at least five children. One couple married less than five years, with four children, was divorced.

A table of divorces according to the duration of marriage and the number of children showed that the biggest group was of couples married between five and nine years without children. Of a total of 7,042 divorces, 990 were of this group.

Will Honor Memory Of Jewish Physician

JERUSALEM (AP) — Scholars here are preparing for next year's 750th anniversary of the death of the great Jewish writer, physician and religious philosopher Maimonides (Rambam) who spent a considerable part of his life in Egypt but is buried in Tiberias on the shores of the Sea of Galilee. Not far from his tomb, venerated by orthodox Jews as a Holy place, a special monument is to be erected.

In Jerusalem, a group of Hebrew University scholars are planning to re-edit Maimonides' religious writings while Dr. Sussman Muntner, a physician and expert on the history of Jewish medicine, is continuing the publication of Maimonides' famous medical manuscripts. Muntner, until now, has re-published (and commented) his books on asthma, poisons and on Hippocrates.

Another book by Maimonides which has been rediscovered and edited by the Jerusalem Orientalist Prof. Gotthold Weil, former director of the Hebrew National and University Library, deals with the span of human life.

AVOCADO TIP
CULVER CITY, Calif. (AP) — If you want to grow avocados which measure 15 inches or more in diameter, take the tip of Glenn R. Kershner and learn the art of top grafting — and do the grafting in the dark of the moon.

Raccoons Reward Hospital Handout

ALTADENA, Calif. (AP) — The patients at La Vina Sanitarium pay little for their zoological show, but they get lots of entertainment.

The show generally starts at dusk when four or five furtive raccoons steal onto the sanitarium grounds and look for the bounty of food that the patients leave for them.

If the menu is not to their liking, the raccoons sample the food next door. If the raccoons want more food, the patients open their cookie or candy boxes.

After the handout, the little masked bandits scamper down the hill, and the evening show is over.

PEACOCK TROUBLE

CHICAGO (AP) — Mrs. Sydney Katz called police who doubted her complaint that there was a peacock in the backyard.

Sure enough, there was. Police-men netted the resplendent bird with the help of the animal keeper of a nearby zoo.

Hot Bottom To Pacific Ocean Leaves Scientists Cold Trail

By NORMAL BELL
LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — Ocean scientists don't expect any quick answer to a new puzzle: What makes the Pacific's bottom so hot?
Nor do they look for any early explanation to another mystery: Why is the sea's floor so thin?
Dr. Roger Revelle, director of the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography, thinks when the answers are given they may show a relationship.
He and other scientists also believe that they may also lead to revision of some of the theories about the composition of the earth's interior.
Questioned By Some
Temperature measurements by Revelle and Arthur E. Maxwell during a recent expedition into the South Pacific confirmed that the heat flow from the deep bottom was about the same as from continental land areas.
This confirmed measurements by Maxwell during a north Pacific expedition in 1950. The discovery then was so surprising that it was questioned by some scientists.
Heat radiated from continental surfaces is largely due to disintegration of uranium and other radioactive material in the granite crust. But under the deep sea there is no granite and, so scientists believe, no heat-producing disintegration.
May Be From Earth's Core
Revelle suggested the bottom heat may be a welling up from the earth's core and that at some periods it may have become so intense as to melt part of the ocean floor.

This, he added, might account for the apparent disappearance of bottom sediments covering a period of 29 hundred million years.
He estimated that existing sediments, averaging 600 feet over the Pacific basin, represent deposits of material eroded from continents, volcanic and atmospheric dust and remains of sea plants and creatures over a period of only 100 million years.
The calculation is based on the scientific concept that the earth and its oceans have existed for three billion years.

Always, at the bottom, there is a steady rain of the material that forms the sediments but in a thousand years, by estimates of its present rate of deposition, only one-third of an inch would be added.
Depths of the sediments and rocks beneath them were measured through sounds of submarine explosions. The speed with which sediments and rocks transmitted the sound revealed their density.

Only Four Miles Thick
Two ships, one setting off the explosions and the other listening with hydrophones 40 or 50 miles away over the horizon, took part in this seismic survey under direction of Dr. Russell W. Rant.
The survey disclosed that the earth's crust beneath the sea, including the deposits and very dense rock, was about four miles thick — remarkably thin compared to the crust of approximately five times that thickness under the continents.

The crust ends under both oceans and continents at what is known as the Mohorovicic discontinuity. Beneath that is still denser rock down to the earth's core.
On the Scripps' expeditions special devices also were used to measure heat flow from the bottom.
A Dane named Christen Jacobsen Drakenberg attained the greatest longevity in modern times, according to the best available records.

Minnesota Plants 15 Million Trees

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Minnesota, already a state of many trees, is getting more than 15 million this year.
About 12,000,000 trees were planted on public lands, including state parks, forests, game refuges and highway rights-of-way. Nearly 3,800,000 went to 3,000 owners for planting on private lands.
The trees were grown in nurseries operated by the Minnesota Division of Forestry. Most are conifers such as pines, spruce and cedar.

HOUSE PLANT WORK IN AUGUST

Many of the rare beauties of indoor plants over winter are the fruits of timely tasks started in August. Here are a few suggestions to assist beginners and to improve cultural methods of more experienced growers:

Do not allow the old repotted poinsettia plant or the new specimens started from spring cuttings to grow tall and spindly. Pinch out the tips of the long shoots to promote laterals from the leaf nodes. Low, many-branched plants bear more and finer heads at Christmas time.

Tall, leggy geraniums are worthless as indoor plants. They are unsightly and rarely produce flowers. Cut back the longer branches of old plants in early August and root them in clean sand under glass. Cuttings should be 4 to 5 inches long, with the lower end cut diagonally just below a leaf joint. All the leaves but a tip pair should be removed. Observe one major rule with geraniums — Grow low, bushy plants for maximum blooms.

Beginners with gardenias should buy small potted plants this month and keep them thriving where there is plenty of uniform light but protection from sun when the rays are hot. Later the first flower buds should be pinched off to promote sturdier and bushier growth.

Buy vigorous cyclamen bulbs (tubers) and pot them any time before late August, allowing the tips to protrude above the soil. Keep the soil moist but not wet. Readers who have encountered problems with this beautiful plant should write the editor, enclosing an addressed, stamped envelope, for a free copy of our cyclamen growing instructions.

Pot freesia bulbs as soon as they are available at your local dealer's store or order them for immediate delivery from catalogues of larger nurseries and seed firms.

Bulbs of the attractive glorioxa, potted in early August will bring plants into bloom by Christmas. Do not buy small or cheap bulbs. Give this plant a fertile loam lightened and enriched with some pulverized cattle manure from a summer pasture field after it is well weathered.

Window boxes of special pots of English ivy (Hedera helix) add cheer to winter living rooms. This hardy vine is easy to propagate for this role by rooting cuttings (vine tips) in water, sand or sandy loam at this time.

Cinerarias are easy to grow from seed. In fact, many experienced growers treat this indoor ornamental as an annual and grow new plants each fall from seed sown in shade in early August. Three factors are stressed: (1) Buy fresh, high-quality seed; (2) Use a fine seedbed soil composed of sifted garden loam, fine leafmold, and sand; (3) Barely cover with sand lightly sprinkled over the seed.

Try Browallias by sowing seed any time in August. Follow the general methods suggested for starting cinerarias. Move the small seedlings to individual pots later.

Growers who have never grown the lovely Lachenalia should pot bulbs as soon as they are procurable. Also write the editor this month or later to ask all the questions that arise about indoor plants.

CORNCOBES FOR MULCHING

Crushed or ground corncobs make excellent mulching materials. They are easy to apply, especially around the bases of row or even among broadcast plants, they do not decay rapidly and they are effective protectors of soil moisture during dry weather. And the fact that corncobs are now wasted in almost all parts of the United States lends additional force to the suggestion that they be widely utilized for mulching.

Of course, most gardeners and farmers use straw, coarse hay, shredded corn stalks, sorghum cane bagasse, grass clippings, and similar waste and semi-waste vegetation for summer mulching. But in many roles it is not easy to apply these coarser materials. For example, any waste vegetation may be used to mulch the area between rows of strawberries but to work such material uniformly around the plants in the rows and beneath the runners is an almost impossible task. Here shredded corncobs fill one of their most useful roles. And likewise shredded cobs are easy to apply around ornamental plants, along most other row vegetables, or even in small lawn beds.

Two obstacles are encountered in obtaining the finished material by suburban gardeners and by many farmers as well. First, cobs may be somewhat difficult to obtain even though they are wasted by thousands of tons every year; second, their crushing may offer a problem.

Usually around commercial feed mills corncobs and their disposal are an actual source of expense. Too, farmers who shell their corn before marketing it usually have a huge surplus of cobs which they burn. Rarely is it impossible to locate a liberal supply of cobs which can be obtained for their removal or at a minimum cost.

In several communities the editor knows of neighbors, both urban and rural, who have banded together to purchase a small hammer-type mill for grinding

cobs for this purpose. Many farmers already have and operate such a mill for feed grinding. This problem, too, can be solved without undue trouble.

To serve at their maximum value cobs should be crushed fairly fine. They should be sacked and stored in a dry room or in an open bin until used. If they are dry at the time of grinding they will not heat in storage. Experience indicates that gardeners and farmers who adopt ground corncobs for summer mulching never have a sufficient supply. Therefore, it is usually advisable to obtain and store more than estimated needs indicate.

Poultrymen find crushed corncobs second only to peat moss as poultry house litter. The particles absorb moisture well and retain their usefulness for a considerable period. Thus, an extra supply for summer mulching may come in handy when litter is scarce over winter.

If cobs are crushed quite fine for mulching, decay will not be long delayed after one year's use. Usually the cobs may be raked up and used on the compost heap before winter or left on the ground and turned under the next spring. Too, it is possible to utilize them in such perennial roles as for strawberries over and over by adding to the coating every spring or summer.

The site of an old U.S. army post, Fort McGraw, lies buried beneath the waters of Elephant Butte Lake, largest body of water in New Mexico.

France Is Called Expensive Country

PARIS (AP) — France is one of the most expensive countries in the world, and here, from the newspaper, Le Figaro, are some examples of why:

Unloading of a cargo of coal from a 7,500-ton ship costs $1,000 in Holland, $1,700 in Belgium, and $3,200 in France. Automobile shock absorbers cost 600 francs in England, and 1,300 in France.

It takes 59 hours to make and assemble an English tractor, and the same process in France takes 136 hours. Raw sulphur costs 13,000 francs in Britain, and 26,000 in France. Nickel costs 375 francs in Canada, 450 in Germany and Britain, and 775 per kilogram in France.

Forty-two species of termites live on Barro Colorado island in the Canal Zone.

TALK — THEN ACTION

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, N. Y. (AP) — Thirty-five village policemen here heard a lecture on the fundamentals of obstetrics, so they would know how to pinch-hit as midwives if the need arose. Dr. G. Borden Granger then opened a question-and-answer period. It was cut short when he received an emergency call to Mercy Hospital.

The cork oak is evergreen.

AIR ATTACKS FEARED AGAIN FOR GERMANY

By The Associated Press
BONN, Germany — The War German-mans are rebuilding the air raid shelters demolished by the Allies.
The new concrete shelters, capable of holding thousands, and even the small, cellar shelters in private houses are ordered "demilitarized." Now it has been officially suggested that all new buildings should have reinforced bomb shelters in the basement.

Interior Ministry officials are preparing a full-scale civil defense scheme, training of air raid wardens and establishment of a nation-wide warning system. A 60,000-strong cadre of technicians, doctors, drivers, engineers and others is already at work. This force will be doubled by next year.
Have Only Theory
But German officials are worried about the lack of preparation for atomic warfare. They have studied published non-secret American data, but everything is "pure theory," as one official put it.
"We badly need special equipment, like Geiger counters, to train our men. Then we need foreign instructors, preferably Americans, who are in the atomic know-how," a responsible German said.

"We know that those large community shelters for air raids as they were built in Germany in the last war will be impractical. They cost too much. Hiroshima and Nagasaki have proven that small deep trenches are almost the best shelter there is. The trench in every backyard is what is going to save the German population in an atomic war."

Wiggling Willows Work Water Witching

COWLEY, Alta. (AP) — An 18-year-old South Alberta man is one of the few persons who cling to the ancient practice of "water witching."
Ernest Cooknell of Cowley says he can locate an underground water supply or walking over the ground clutching a branch of a willow tree.
He says four of his family could make the wand wiggle over water, but four others could not.
He doesn't know how or why he possesses the "sight." He says it may have something to do with the individual's body chemistry, and possibly is inherited.
Cooknell claims that his "witching" has never failed to find water since he came to Cowley in 1901. He has found water at depths ranging as much as 230 feet.
He has never taken money for a job, believing the charm might be broken if used professionally.

has parlayed an auction-bought

$100 airplane, two years of pilot more of materials and un-wield experience and plenty of elbow hours of labor, he successfully grease into a smooth sailing craft "tested it," with the engine purring

Dave Case bought the plane at an auction. "odd ball engine, rusty of private license time, Dave now

Hot Bottom To Pacific Ocean Leaves Scientists Cold Trail

By NORMAL BELL
LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — Ocean scientists don't expect any quick answer to a new puzzle: What makes the Pacific's bottom so hot?
Nor do they look for any early explanation to another mystery: Why is the sea's floor so thin?
Dr. Roger Revelle, director of the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography, thinks when the answers are given they may show a relationship.
He and other scientists also believe that they may also lead to revision of some of the theories about the composition of the earth's interior.
Questioned By Some
Temperature measurements by Revelle and Arthur E. Maxwell during a recent expedition into the South Pacific confirmed that the heat flow from the deep bottom was about the same as from continental land areas.
This confirmed measurements by Maxwell during a north Pacific expedition in 1950. The discovery then was so surprising that it was questioned by some scientists.
Heat radiated from continental surfaces is largely due to disintegration of uranium and other radioactive material in the granite crust. But under the deep sea there is no granite and, so scientists believe, no heat-producing disintegration.
May Be From Earth's Core
Revelle suggested the bottom heat may be a welling up from the earth's core and that at some periods it may have become so intense as to melt part of the ocean floor.
This, he added, might account for the apparent disappearance of bottom sediments covering a period of 29 hundred million years.
He estimated that existing sediments, averaging 600 feet over the Pacific basin, represent deposits of material eroded from continents, volcanic and atmospheric dust and remains of sea plants and creatures over a period of only 100 million years.
The calculation is based on the scientific concept that the earth and its oceans have existed for three billion years.
Always, at the bottom, there is a steady rain of the material that forms the sediments but in a thousand years, by estimates of its present rate of deposition, only one-third of an inch would be added.
Depths of the sediments and rocks beneath them were measured through sounds of submarine explosions. The speed with which sediments and rocks transmitted the sound revealed their density.
Only Four Miles Thick
Two ships, one setting off the explosions and the other listening with hydrophones 40 or 50 miles away over the horizon, took part in this seismic survey under direction of Dr. Russell W. Raitt.
The survey disclosed that the earth's crust beneath the sea, including the deposits and very dense rock, was about four miles thick — remarkably thin compared to the crust of approximately five times that thickness under the continents.
The crust ends under both oceans and continents at what is known as the Mohorovicic discontinuity. Beneath that is still denser rock down to the earth's core.
On the Scripps' expeditions special devices also were used to measure heat flow from the bottom.
A Dane named Christen Jacobsen Drakenberg attained the greatest longevity in modern times, according to the best available records.
Minnesota Plants 15 Million Trees
ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Minnesota, already a state of many trees, is getting more than 15 million this year.
About 12,000,000 trees were planted on public lands, including state parks, forests, game refuges and highway rights-of-way. Nearly 3,800,000 went to 3,000 owners for planting on private lands.
The trees were grown in nurseries operated by the Minnesota Division of Forestry. Most are conifers such as pines, spruce and cedar.

STATE RAISES SPEED LIMIT

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state speed limit will be raised from 50 to 60 miles per hour Sept. 1 on roads designated by the highways secretary under a new law.

"I have signed this measure solely for experimental purposes," Gov. John S. Fine said in signing the law Monday.

"There has been much controversy over speed as the greatest contributing factor to highway accidents and fatalities," Fine added.

The governor said E. L. Schmidt, highways secretary, will limit the increased speed to one or two highways as an experimental project.

"I believe this bill gives us an opportunity which we will take in a limited way in further effort to arrive at a determination of the ratio of speed to safety," the governor said.

Invalid Gets Rich As State Gives Bird

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — Tiny birds are bringing financial independence to a wheelchair occupant.

Bill Stalcup, 29, confined to a wheelchair nine years, raises budgerigars, a breed of small parakeets.

He started last fall. The state vocational rehabilitation office designed an aviary in which Stalcup could maneuver his wheelchair. The agency gave him seven pairs of birds to get started.

Stalcup already has sold about 100 birds. He hopes to sell 1,000 birds a year. At about $10 a bird, he figures on a tidy income.

Hair-Raising Story Embarrasses Woman

HYDRO Oils — I was enough to make Mrs. Tom Dunn's hair stand on end. Started to shampoo her hair, Mrs. Dunn resented for a while. I put shampoo on the shelf and asked it liberally on her head. But the foamy stuff wouldn't lather, so she poured on some more.

Still no lather—and her hair began to turn gray and stiff. She looked at the bottle again. It was labeled "Hydro Oils," but was clearly labeled "Hydrogen peroxide."

Hot Weather Dress Causes Dignity Loss

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Intermittent in dress, brought on by 90-degree weather, has resulted in a loss of dignity on more than one score of Oklahoma legislators.

Rep. C. E. Rogers, wearing a comfortable cool sport shirt, was addressed as "Page" by one of the post office employees whom he sponsored.

Gov. James E. Berry, seeing a sports shirt-clad figure on the page bench, snapped his fingers three times and yelled, "Page!" Harold Morgan, state senator, turned but refused to acknowledge the command.

There are no natural harbors on the Gold Coast of Africa.

Stamp News

By The Associated Press
A moderately priced, new stamp album specifically designed for the new collector has arrived on the philatelic scene. The expensive rarities, the hard-to-get issues that most collectors never own, have been omitted intentionally.

The result is a practical album in which page after page can be filled with stamps which the collector can reasonably expect to own.

The new Traveler Album, published by H. E. Harris and Co.

of Boston, sells for less than $2. It provides for about 11,000 stamps of all countries and colonies of the world, thousands of illustrations to help identify the issues, historical and geographical information about these countries, a guide for beginning collectors and spaces for flags and coats of arms.

From Western Germany comes word that a new set of stamps has been issued for the German Exhibition at Munich. The 4 pfennig brown shows a railroad train with a superimposed hand signal. The 10 pf green symbolizes the postal system. The 20 pf red is for the highway system and the 30 pf blue is for waterways. Each stamp bears the emblem of the exhibition.

Norway has issued three new semi-postal stamps in the North Cape design, reports the New York Stamp Co. The design was originally issued in 1930 but has not appeared on Norwegian stamps since that time. Each stamp shows the famed "Nordkapp" or North Cape. The 20 ore plus 10 is green. The 30 ore plus 15 is red. The 55 ore plus 25 is blue. The additional values are for Norwegian charities.

For the 1953 Spring Music Festival in Prague, the Czechoslovakian postal department has issued two new stamps. The 1.60 korunn brown shows a portrait of Leos Janacek, composer. The 4 k blue depicts a portrait of Josef Slavik, violinist, and his dates (1806-1833).

The Israel Philatelic Agency has announced that four new sets will be issued this year. The Maimonides stamp (about Aug. 4) will coincide with the 7th International Congress of History Science to be held in Jerusalem. The High Holy Day stamps (about Aug. 11) will feature the Holy Arches of three Israel synagogues. The Fourth Macabiah stamp (about Sept. 20) will honor the athletic meet to be held at that time. The "Conquest of the Desert" stamp (about Sept. 22) will coincide with the opening of the International exhibition about that subject. Details and further information as to the designs will be available shortly.

The last discovery of a major planet came in 1930, when astronomers identified Pluto, which averages 3,600 million miles from the sun.

Handy Helicopter Opens Bush Areas

EDMONTON, Alta. (P) — The helicopter, with its ability to hang motionless in mid-air or land in a tiny space, is proving a valuable addition to northern bush plane fleets.

Manager Thomas P. Fox of Associated Airways Ltd., which has three 'copters based here, says development of their use in the northland has barely started. There now are five commercial helicopters in Alberta on geological, topographical or timber surveying.

Fox says the helicopter will not replace conventional aircraft in the near future, his will make unnecessary many trips by canoe or on foot. With helicopters, geologists can reach areas previously inaccessible. Fox recalls one engineer who accomplished more with a helicopter and crew in six weeks last year than three crews could have done in three years by ordinary methods.

The world's oldest bowling green, dating back to 1299, is believed to be at Southampton, England, and is still used regularly.

ACE SCHOOLBOY GRIDDER WILL ENTER BAYLOR

WACO, Tex. (P) — Baylor has shared the boy they call the greatest quarterback and the greatest passer in Texas schoolboy football history.

And from the home town of the top college and professional passer — Shuglin Sammy Baugh — Doyle Traylor goes to Waco and to Baylor.

All the colleges were after him, but Dandy Doyle was deliberate in making up his mind. He waited until baseball season was over and school was out.

Then suddenly he announced that Baylor was his choice and in the ranks of the Golden Bears there was joy and shouting.

Next fall Baylor will have a veteran backfield, including a top quarterback Cotton Davidson. But in 1954 all will be gone. And Baylor will need a quarterback of the Doyle Traylor stripe.

Doyle played four years for Temple High. He gained 33 miles of territory. He passed the ball for 5,908 yards and completed 78 touchdown throws. Twice he was all-State.

The 180-pound, 17-year-old quarterback, who is also a good runner, played junior high football one season — at the same school where Baugh got his start. In 1950 Traylor went to Temple Senior High.

"We ran him off when he tried to come out for football his first year," Ted Dawson, Temple High coach.

Traylor had a missing disc in his backbone, being born that way. He played with his back in a brace in 1951 out that winter had an operation. A piece of bone was taken from his hip and grafted to his spine. Now he is totally sound physically and big and tough enough for college football.

Deadly Coal Gas New Cooking Fuel

BRUSSELS (P) — That appetizing steak you ate tonight may have been broiled to a turn by fire damp—one of the Belgian coal mines' great killers.

A growing industry is paying off two ways — in eliminating the deadly gas from mines and providing healthy gas for cooking. Housewives in Brussels, Ostend and Liege are putting the lethal, fearsome "grisou" to good use.

Fire damp is coal-gas by-product which becomes explosive when mixed with air in the right proportion. A few years ago, it occurred to engineers that properly controlled it must contain potential energy.

Now there are 25 centers in the Claret, Moza and La Louviere mine areas collecting the coal gas. Some of it is used in factories. Some of it is used in factories, through a cracking process which changes it chemically from a death dealer to fuel.

Indochina Ruler Paris Law Grad

LUANG PRABANG, Laos (P) — A tall, handsome, affable and hard-working 46-year-old prince will someday be the ruler of the little mountain kingdom of Laos — one of the three Associated States of Indochina.

Administration of much of the Imperial affairs of Laos already rests in the hands of Crown Prince Teo Savang Vathana, for it often is delegated to him or his eldest son, Savang Vong.

A lawyer and graduate of the free school of political sciences in Paris, the crown prince was named president of the council for the kingdom of Laos on November 17, 1947.

During the occupation of Laos by the Japanese and Chinese in and after World War II, the crown prince steadfastly remained at his father's side in the royal palace here and refused to have anything to do with the occupiers. He did leave when the Communist Vietnamese captured the area. He returned to Laos in 1953, retaining with him the enemy forces suddenly withdrawn from Laos.

Salesman Scares Dragnet Watcher

POMONA, Calif. (P) — A Pomona salesman got an extra thrill as he watched the TV show, "Dragnet."

The story he told the story of a salesman who avoided the city of a crime. When the lead of the case showed the lead of the salesman, "Dragnet" was the story.

As the salesman, he was the police officer in the TV show. He was a salesman who was a salesman.

The last of the salesman was the door and the door was the door. The salesman was the door.

The real salesman was the door. The salesman was the door.

ALLIANCE, O. (P) — Here's one umpire the players won't be paying around. He's Bill Fraccolo, a member of the Alliance Un-

CAMP COOK—Sir John Barbiroli, taking time from the podium at the Theater Royal, Fairbridge, Southern Rhodesia, cooks sausages over a barbecue fire on Fairbridge school grounds.

Woman Operates N. J. Lumber Firm

NEWARK, N. J. (P) — When a new customer for the Central Lumber Co. sees Miss Ethel Goldner behind the counter, he often asks to see the man in charge.

"I'm the man in charge," Miss Goldner explains.

For years she was a bookkeeper in lumber firms here. Then her brother bought a building that used to house a lumber company.

Last March she was in business. At first things were pretty slow. But grizzled carpenters began dropping in more frequently, after their first double take. They get nervous when she runs something off on the power saw out back.

Miss Goldner was nervous at first too, because that was one thing she never tried when she worked at other lumber yards.

Many of her customers help her carry especially heavy loads. Others, less gallant, just stand there and watch her stagger. She hopes to get a male assistant soon, to do the manual work. It depends on how business picks up in the near future.

FISHING FROM FUR—Muriel Hagberg, Miss Alaska, prepared for warm air temperature above, and probable chill below ice, fishes at Kotzebue, 40 miles north of Arctic Circle.

Teacher Constructs Own TV Transmitter

CALGARY, Alberta (P) — It's a simple chore to build your own television transmitter and receiver — if you have a thorough knowledge of electronics, the necessary expensive equipment and a few hundred hours to spare.

Although William K. Allan of Calgary refuses to admit that he has achieved anything unusual, he has built what is believed the first amateur television receiver and transmitter in Alberta. The 47-year-old electricity teacher at Calgary's Western Canada High School is a recognized top-flight expert on electronics.

While he regards the construction of a normal TV receiver as child's play, Allan admits that the transmitting equipment was more difficult. The problem he faced was that of adapting a 16 mm. movie projector into a TV "camera" to transmit the film.

HOOKED WITH TWO HOOKS

SAN FRANCISCO (P) — Hans Lundie, 55, was fined $25 for fishing in a city lake with two rods. He told Municipal Judge John McMeekin he "was just practicing — first with my left hand and then with my right hand, to see which worked best."

Judge McMeekin warned Lundie to stay away from Lake Merced, which is kept stocked with trout for fishing by children.

OLD TOMBS FOUND

JERUSALEM (P) — Three burial caves from the time of King Herod were discovered while the foundations of the new Kiryat (Israel Government Headquarters) to the west of Jerusalem were being dug.

AIR ATTACKS FEARED AGAIN FOR GERMANY

By The Associated Press
BONN, Germany—The West Germans are rebuilding the air raid shelters demolished by the Allies. The huge concrete shelters, capable of holding thousands, and even the small cellar shelters in private houses were ordered "demilitarized." Now it has been officially suggested that all new buildings should have reinforced bomb shelters in the basement. Interior Ministry officials are preparing a full-scale civil defense scheme, training of air raid wardens and establishment of a nation-wide warning system. A 60,000-strong cadre of technicians, doctors, drivers, engineers and others is already at work. This force will be doubled by next year.

Have Only Theory
But German officials are worried about the lack of preparation for atomic warfare. They have studied published non-secret American data, but everything is "pale theory," as one official put it. "We badly need special equipment, like Geiger counters, to train our men. Then we need foreign instructors, preferably Americans, who are in the atomic know-how," a responsible German said.

"We know that those large community shelters for air raids as they were built in Germany in the last war will be impractical. They cost too much. Hiroshima and Nagasaki have proven that small deep trenches are almost the best shelter there is. The trench in every backyard is what is going to save the German population in an atomic war."

Wiggling Willows Work Water Witching

COWLEY, Alta. (AP) — An 18-year-old South Alberta man is one of the few persons who cling to the ancient practice of "water witching."
Ernest Cooknell of Cowley says he can locate an underground water supply by walking over the ground clutching a branch of a willow tree.
He says four of his family could make the wands wiggle over water, but four others could not. He doesn't know how or why he possesses the talent. He says it may have something to do with the individual's body chemistry, and possibly is inherited.
Cooknell claims that his "witching" has never failed to find water since he came to Cowley in 1901. He has found water at depths ranging as much as 230 feet.
He has never taken money for a job, believing the charm might be broken if used professionally.

POLICE TO THE RESCUE

DENVER (AP) — Police Capt. Edward Swank rescued a 43-year-old woman, part of whom was caught in the zipper of a new blue evening gown.

Thirty-one of the 107 Class 1 railways in the United States have been completely dieselized, and forty-nine others use diesels for more than half of their operations.

FROZEN IN — The U. S. Coast Guard Cutter Northwind is poised on Bering Strait ice in unsuccessful attempt last winter to pierce giant ice floes barring sea lanes to Nome, Alaska.

Long Beach Student Flies $100 Plane

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — An 18-year-old Long Beach student has parlayed an auction-bought $100 airplane, two years of pilot experience and plenty of elbow grease into a smooth sailing craft of his own.

Dave Case bought the plane at auction, "odd ball engine, rusty framework and all." After $550 more of materials and untold hours of labor, he successfully tested it, with the engine purring like a kitten.

Already having logged 85 hours of private license time, Dave now seeks a commercial license.

STATE RAISES SPEED LIMIT

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state speed limit will be raised from 59 to 60 miles per hour Sept. 1 on roads designated by the highways secretary under a new law.

"I have signed this measure solely for experimental purposes," Gov. John S. Fine said in signing the law Monday.

"There has been much controversy over speed as the greatest contributing factor to highway accidents and fatalities," Fine added.

The governor said E. L. Schmidt, highways secretary, will limit the increased speed to one or two highways as an experimental project.

"I believe this bill gives us an opportunity which we will take in a limited way in further effort to arrive at a determination of the ratio of speed to safety," the governor said.

Six-Year-Old Boy Finds Dinosaur

LEWISTOWN, Mont. (AP) — For six years Perry Martin of Stanford told his friends of an old rock formation shaped like a gigantic spine.

No one would pay attention to him.

Finally, Martin convinced listeners the formation along railroad tracks near Stanford was some-

They started to dig at the spot pointed out by Martin and unearthed a major part of a dinosaur. Its bones were petrified and resembled ordinary rocks.

ENID, Okla. (AP) — Mrs. Ed Smith had the last laugh on her husband.

She let her driver's license expire May 1 and remembered it a couple of weeks later. Her husband reprimanded her saying:

"There's no excuse for that."

Then — you guessed it — Smith checked his own driver's license and discovered it had expired a year

Invalid Gets Rich As State Gives Bird

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — Tiny birds are bringing financial independence to a wheelchair occupant.

Bill Stalcup, 29, confined to a wheelchair nine years, raises budgerigars, a breed of small parakeets.

He started last fall. The state vocational rehabilitation office designed an aviary in which Stalcup could maneuver his wheelchair. The agency gave him seven pairs of birds to get started.

Stalcup already has sold about 100 birds. He hopes to sell 1,000 birds a year. At about $10 a bird, he figures on a tidy income.

Hair-Raising Story Embarrasses Woman

HYDRO, Okla. (AP) — It was enough to make Mrs. Tom Dunn's hair stand on end. Starting to shampoo her hair, Mrs. Dunn reached for a bottle of pink shampoo on the shelf and doused it liberally on her head. But the usually foamy stuff wouldn't lather, so she poured on some more.

Still no lather—and her hair began to turn wiry and stiff. She looked at the bottle again. It was pink, all right, but was clearly labeled "furniture polish."

Hot Weather Dress Causes Dignity Loss

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Informality in dress, brought on by 90-degree weather, has resulted in a loss of dignity on more than one score by Oklahoma legislators.

Rep. Cleeta John Rogers, wearing a comfortably cool sport shirt, was addressed as "page" by one of the post office employees whom he sponsored.

OLDEST TWINS

DANIELSON, Conn. (AP) — Candidates for the title of oldest twins in the United States are two retired clergymen, the Revs. Jerome Wood of Danielson and Joseph Wood of Rochester, N.Y. They celebrated their 95th birthday in Rochester on June 18, 1953. They've been together on every birthday since 1858 except for 1951.

ACE SCHOOLBOY GRIDDER WILL ENTER BAYLOR

WACO, Tex. (P) — Baylor has snared the boy they call the greatest quarterback and the greatest passer in Texas schoolboy football history.

And from the home town of the top college and professional passer — Singin' Sammy Baugh — Doyle Traylor goes to Waco and to Baylor.

All the colleges were after him, but Dandy Doyle was deliberate in making up his mind. He waited until baseball season was over and school was out.

Then suddenly he announced that Baylor was his choice and in the ranks of the Golden Bears there was joy and shouting.

Next fall Baylor will have a veteran backfield, including a top quarterback, Cotton Davidson. But in 1954 all will be gone. And Baylor will need a quarterback of the Doyle Traylor stripe.

Doyle played three years for Temple High. He gained 3.3 miles of territory. He passed the ball for 5,908 yards and completed 78 touchdown throws. Twice he was all-State.

The 180-pound, 17-year-old quarterback, who is also a good runner, played junior high football one season — at the same school where Baugh got his start. In 1950 Traylor went to Temple Senior High.

"We ran him off when he tried to come out for football his first year," Ted Dawson, Temple High little."

Traylor had a missing disc in his backbone, being born that way. He played with his back in a brace in 1951 but that winter had an operation. A piece of bone was taken from his hip and grafted to his spine. Now he is totally sound physically and big and tough enough for college football.

Deadly Coal Gas New Cooking Fuel

BRUSSELS (P) — That appetizing steak you ate tonight may have been broiled to a turn by fire damp—one of the Belgian coal mines' great killers.

A growing industry is paying off two ways — in eliminating the deadly gas from mines and providing healthy gas for cooking. Housewives in Brussels, Ostend and Liege are putting the lethal, fearsome "grisou" to good use.

Fire damp is coal-charged hydrogen which becomes explosive when mixed with air in the right proportion. A few years ago, it occurred to engineers that properly controlled it must contain potential energy.

Now there are 25 centers in the Clarierol, Mona and La Louviere mine areas collecting the coal gas. Some of it is used in factories. Some of it is used in factories, through a cracking process which changes it chemically from a death dealer to fuel.

Indochina Ruler Paris Law Grad

LUANG PRABANG, Laos (P) — A tall, handsome, affable and hard-working 46-year-old prince will someday be the ruler of the little mountain kingdom of Laos — one of the three Associated States of Indochina.

Administration of much of the imperial affairs of Laos already rests in the hands of Crown Prince Tiao Savang Vathana, for it often is delegated to him by his ailing Sisavang Vong.

A lawyer and graduate of the free school of political sciences in Paris, the crown prince was named president of the council for the kingdom of Laos on November 17, 1941.

During the occupation of Laos by the Japanese and Chinese in and after World War II, the crown prince steadfastly remained at his father's side in the royal palace here and refused to have anything to do with the occupants. He did likewise when the Communist-led Vietminh threatened to attack Luang Prabang in April and May, 1953, remaining with the King at Luang Prabang until the enemy forces suddenly withdrew from Laos.

Salesman Scares Dagnet Watcher

POMONA, Calif. (P) — A Pomona family got an extra thrill as it watched the TV show, Dagnet, recently.

The show featured the story of a young salesman who knocked at the door of a home. When the lady of the house opened the door, the salesman promptly shot her to death.

As the viewers were watching the police close in on the TV "killer," they heard a knock on their own door. Opening it, they saw a salesman.

The lady of the house slammed the door shut and called the police. They arrived on the double.

The real salesman, baffled by the commotion, was found to be of non-criminal intentions. The lady happily returned to her TV set.

CAMP COOK—Sir John Barbiroli, taking time from the podium at the Theater Royal, Fairbridge, Southern Rhodesia, cooks sausages over a barbecue fire on Fairbridge school grounds.

Woman Operates N. J. Lumber Firm

NEWARK, N. J. (P) — When a new customer for the Central Lumber Co. sees Miss Ethel Goldner behind the counter, he often asks to see the man in charge. "I'm the man in charge," Miss Goldner explains.

For years she was a bookkeeper in lumber firms here. Then her brother bought a building that used to house a lumber company. Last March she was in business.

At first things were pretty slow. But grizzled carpenters began dropping in more frequently, after their first double take. They get nervous when she runs something off on the power saw out back. Miss Goldner was nervous at first too, because that was one thing she never tried when she worked at other lumber yards.

Many of her customers help her carry especially heavy loads. Others, less gallant, just stand there and watch her stagger. She hopes to get a male assistant soon, to do the manual work. It depends on how business picks up in the near future.

FISHING FROM FUR—Muriel Hagberg, Miss Alaska, prepared for warm air temperature above, and probable chill below ice, fishes at Kotzebue, 40 miles north of Arctic Circle.

Camera News

By IRVING DESFOR
By The Associated Press

The No. 1 hot weather hint, repeated in every written or spoken bit of advice on summertime picture taking, is: Don't leave your camera, light meter or extra films in the auto glove compartment. It can become a little hot box, as can the trunk compartment, if subjected to the broiling rays of the sun for any length of time.

I was amazed to meet a snapshooter, about to leave on an extended auto tour, who hadn't heard the warning before. Now he's going to keep the camera on the rear seat or alongside where it'll be handier for shooting anyway.

Here's an idea for storing extra film comfortably cool. Get one of those inexpensive, wide-mouthed jugs for carrying cold or hot liquids for hours. Cool it off before you start on a trip then put the spare film in it.

I had supposed all camera fans were aware of the dangers of sand and salt water spray on the tender innards of cameras. Then how come a visit to any beach will reveal several cameras lying around exposed to passing feet spraying flying sand? When not in actual use, a camera should be protected — though handy for further use. For such a purpose, you'll find kitchen plastic bags very useful.

Sometimes equipment is left in a shady spot only to be broiled later when the sun shifts. Take heed before you take a snooze. Snapshooters occasionally return exposed film to a commercial finisher in the wrong carton — putting color film, perhaps, in a handy empty black-and-white box. This can lead to trouble. In the darkroom, the distinguishing colors aren't recognized and wham! — another roll ruined and effort wasted. Moral: If the right box isn't available, don't use any, or identify plainly.

After exposure, all film should be processed as soon as possible. In the heat the ability of film to absorb a little moisture is an undesirable trait. Indoor picture taking is a cooler process by shooting flash instead of working with photo floods, of course.

When processing films or prints away from a cold water tap, put your working tray inside an ice-filled larger tray to keep the temperature down. Nowadays some of the newer refrigerators dispense ice circles directly, as you need them.

Before any vacation trip with its irreplaceable picture memories, it's a sensible plan to give your camera equipment a personal shooting test. Make sure the mechanical parts are operating smoothly, the lens is cleaned, the bellows light-tight and your judgment of exposure and focus — or your operation as guided by a meter — is correct. If you plan to use flash, check your batteries and get new ones if there's any doubt that they'll hold up for the whole trip.

But instead of a dry run, give it a test run with actual pictures and live film. You'll appreciate it the more if any corrections can be made in advance to make your vacation pictures come to life later.

SETS COLORADO RECORD
SALIDA, Colo. (P) — John Bayuk is a big boy who can get out and go. The 210-pound Salida High youngster set a new Class A shot-put record of 49 feet 10 inches this year at the state high school track meet. He also ran on the 880-yard and mile relay teams.

NEW YORK (P) — Maurice C. (Mickey) Harris, former pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, Washington Senators and Cleveland Indians, now is the New York Sales representative of AMP Pin-Spotters, Inc. The most famous of Pin-Spotters' products is the ABC-approved machine which sets up bowling pins and returns the ball automatically. Harris's last season in baseball was in 1952 with the Indians.

pires Association and a menacing 365 pounds. A veteran of 14 years of arbiting, Fraraccio is considered quite an agile guy in covering plays and challenges any other umpire who weighs 350 pounds or more to a foot race.

Gas Cut Backfires On Pa. Councilmen

MASONTOWN, Pa. (P) — This western Pennsylvania town is going to have bigger gasoline bills, all because some councilmen thought the police department was using too much gas already.

Councilmen objected when they learned the two patrol cars used 66 gallons of gas in 17 days. But John Nagy, the Burgess, thought differently when he figured the rate of consumption was only about two gallons a day.

Nagy ordered police officers to use five or six gallons a day so the town can be patrolled adequately. He declared:

"And if the men don't use that much in their patrols, I'll fire them!"

INNER TUBES BANNED

GREENWICH, Conn. (P) — If you want to go into deep water at any of the municipal beaches here, you must swim without using inflated inner tubes. After a 10-year-old girl slipped off a tube and drowned, the board of selectmen banned the use of such swimming implements.

REVENUE HITS HIGH

MIAMI (P) — Florida horse racing this year produced an all-time high of $12,732,351 in revenue for the state. As usual, Hialeah was the largest producer with $5,448,324. Of the state's portion, 62 per cent goes to old age assistance and 38 per cent is equally divided among Florida's 67 counties.

Teacher Constructs Own TV Transmitter

CALGARY, Alberta (P) — It's a simple chore to build your own television transmitter and receiver — if you have a thorough knowledge of electronics, the necessary expensive equipment and a few hundred hours to spare.

Although William K. Allan of Calgary refuses to admit that he has achieved anything unusual, he has built what is believed the first amateur television receiver and transmitter in Alberta. The 47-year-old electricity teacher at Calgary's Western Canada High School is a recognized top-flight expert on electronics.

While he regards the construction of a normal TV receiver as child's play, Allan admits that the transmitting equipment was more difficult. The problem he faced was that of adapting a 16 mm. movie projector into a TV "camera" to transmit the film.

HOOKED WITH TWO HOOKS
SAN FRANCISCO (P) — Hans Lunde, 55, was fined $25 for fishing in a city lake with two rods. He told Municipal Judge John McMahon he "was just practicing — first with my left hand and then with my right hand, to see which worked best."

Judge McMahon warned Lunde to stay away from Lake Merced, which is kept stocked with trout for fishing by children.
